

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20160607South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_10154232227498166

South Carolina State Parks

at 23:30:00 on 6/07/2016 UTC · 🌐

Our newest SC State Park Jr Ranger is Carter O'dell from Hartsville! He earned his badge at Myrtle Beach State Park. You can become one too, at a park near you. Click here to find out how, and get your hat & badge this summer: www.scjrranger.com

Lisa Wicks I just looked at details because we'll be at Cheraw this weekend. Tad confused in activities for Ranger 1.

- Find and name three special plants or animals
- Recycle
- Learn how to be safe in the park

Is the info for these at the park office?

at 3:54:52 on 6/09/2016 UTC

South Carolina State Parks Yes, a park ranger or other park staff should be able to help you with these. For the three special plants or animals....we have kiosks at the park that point these out. They can be found on trails and in other areas. To recycle, all you have to do is take something recyclable (a can, bottle, etc) to one of our recycle bins at the park, and to learn how to be safe, that's probably something you would want to talk to park staff about. Any of the staff at the park will be happy to help anyone trying to obtain their jr ranger badge. Does this help?

at 13:32:55 on 6/09/2016 UTC

Lisa Wicks Yes thank u!

at 14:23:03 on 6/09/2016 UTC

South Carolina State Parks Enjoy! Cheraw is a a great park.

at 15:01:06 on 6/09/2016 UTC

Peterson MikenKristy Are the programs and events usually stroller friendly at Myrtle Beach Park?

at 21:09:02 on 6/26/2016 UTC