

From:

To:

Date: 9/20/2016 10:43:55 AM

Subject:

---

The State: BUZZ: Is Haley hitting right notes?

<http://www.thestate.com/2013/09/01/2953596/is-haley-hitting-right-notes.html>

Andrew Shain

Gov. Nikki Haley is involved in the details of her political life — even the music used during her appearances. “Anyone who knows Nikki — or follows her Facebook posts — knows she loves music,” campaign spokesman Rob Godfrey said, “but each governor chose the song to which he came out on stage.” The Buzz noticed that the Republican governor’s song choices at her re-election kickoff rally in Greenville last Monday had rather, well, Democratic tones.

Sabato’s Crystal Ball: South Carolina Governor 2010

<http://www.centerforpolitics.org/crystalball/2010-governor-races/governor/south-carolina-governor-2010/>

At Haley’s victory party... Bill Clinton’s 1992 campaign song, “Don’t Stop Thinking About Tomorrow,” played in the background.