Dear Governor Haley,

To Whom it May Concern,

I refuse to accept that our government has become far to big and feels the need to chip away at the rights of its citizens. The bill of rights is an inspired document that guarantees the God given rights of every man, women, and child within the bounds of our great nation. Because of these rights, I vehemently oppose any bill, executive order, or any other governmental provision that limits the Bill of Rights in anyway. Including, but not limited to a reduction in our rights for free speech and the right to bear and keep arms. The agenda to limit our rights is not in the best interest of any citizen no matter their gender, race, religion, or socioeconomic status. I plead that all elected officials, including those who may read my comments, will consider the repercussions, both long and short term, of their actions as they pertain to your bosses, the American people.

Thank You

Sincerely,
Robert Powell
