With an 1800s-era Living History Farm, miles of hiking trails and two lakes, Kings Mountain State Park is perfect for outdoor adventure.

Stephen Perry Williams Please improve the campground road and sites. Drainage and leveling issues for campers make it difficult.

Cindy Sovde Crowders Mountain is close by and is great for hiking. Spectacular view at the top.

Doreen Ursetti Is this worth driving from Charleston, fellow Trail Blazers?

at 0:49:27 on 2/04/2020 UTC

Belle Boone Stephen Perry Williams we had the most uneven site there. And we arrived at night which made leveling very difficult!

Chris Pruitt Doreen Ursetti I say yes. You could also visit the Cowpens Battlefield- only 45 minutes from Kings Mountain.

Taft Hasty the kids love this park. We can come in from the back and literally be there in about 5 minutes. Walked a lot of trails there Chad Keith It's a great park - I used to work there. The only place that I know of where you can hike from a National Battlefield in South Carolina to a State Park in South Carolina and a State Park in North Carolina.

Chad Keith Doreen Ursetti Definitely worth the drive! Kings Mountain and Cowpens are the two most important Revolutionary War Sites in the South - right here in South Carolina!

Chris Pruitt There's also Musgrove Mill. Just 2 miles off I-26. You'll pass it on your way down. It's a beautiful place on the river!
