Description/Significant Features:

A single story, Minimal Traditional-style residence with a hipped roof; it is of frame construction and has a brick veneer exterior. The main hipped roof has a front-projecting hipped section attached, beneath which is a recessed porch that is supported by a tapered square column resting on a brick pier. The doorway is located slightly off center, next to the enclosed portion of the front projection; north of the door is a two-pane, vinyl, sliding casement window, while south is a large picture window and one-over-one, double hung, vinyl sash window. The roof is covered with composition shingles and an interior chimney is visible above the roof ridge.
