Rob,

I hope you're doing well. I emailed this to Chaney a little earlier, but haven't heard back. Can you help?

Thanks, Tim Waller

Chaney,

I hope you're doing well. Hoping you can call me sometime today. I have a few questions about Gov. Haley's response to SOTU tomorrow night. I will be in Columbia Tuesday night to "cover" the event, so my questions are:

- Where will the governor be when she delivers her remarks?
- Will reporters be allowed to cover her live broadcast, then get reaction afterward?
- Will she have any availability before her address?
- Do you plan to release an advanced copy of Gov. Haley's remarks? If so, when?
- Is there a statement you can release today on what the governor hopes to accomplish during her address? In other words, will her response be a rebuttal to specific points in the President's speech?

My cell is 864-313-1108.

Sincerely, Tim
