WIS News 10 Sunrise (News)

... members of the legislative black caucus spoke in north charleston thursday to push for legislation they hope to soon have sent to governor nikki haley. "so our main goal is to make sure that we gave a bipartisan bill, that it goes through this legislative session, that it is passed and signed by the governor." "on behalf of the legislative black caucus, our number one priority would be to focus the legislature to pass these body camera bills. i would invite everybody to ...
