

From: Hayden Grooms
To: Danny VaratDannyVarat@scstatehouse.gov
Date: 5/2/2017 11:41:03 AM
Subject: Clips 5-2

---

A man who suffered a brain injury is forcibly being treated in a hospital at a greater expense per day, rather than in the comfort of his home for substantially cheaper

<http://www.greenvilleonline.com/story/news/health/2017/04/29/rob-levin-disabled-man-911-battles-state-cared-home/100844476/>

Judiciary Subcommittee will review S.159, a bill that closes the "Charleston Loophole" in gun sales

<http://www.thestate.com/news/politics-government/article148005649.htm>

Democratic and Republican Primaries for 5th Congressional District are today

<http://www.thestate.com/news/politics-government/politics-columns-blogs/the-buzz/article147943914.html>

Trump says he would consider raising the federal gas tax

<http://www.thestate.com/latest-news/article147858579.html>

Middle Tyger article

<http://www.goupstate.com/news/20170501/lyman-senior-center-gets-350k-grant-targets-april-2018-opening>

Hayden Grooms
Manager of External Affairs
Office of the Lieutenant Governor
(803) 734-0107