It's official: July 13 for WHCOA

The White House Conference on Aging (WHCOA) has set July 13 for its all-day event in Washington, DC. There are several ways to get involved, including hosting a watch party, tweeting questions, submitting photos, sharing stories, and more. We also encourage you to read and echo our comments on the WHCOA issue briefs on healthy aging and long-term services and supports. Comments are due June 12.

Webinar: Implementing and Sustaining CDSME Programs

Older Americans are disproportionately affected by chronic disease, and self-management can empower them to take charge of their health. Join NCOA and IlluminAge on June 11 for a free webinar on strategies and resources for implementing and sustaining evidence-based chronic disease self-management programs in your community.
