Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, college campuses throughout the state utilize student employees through federal work study, community service organizations and other student employment resources; and

WHEREAS, student employment offers students career-enhancing experiences, the opportunity to polish employment skills, financial support during their academic careers and preparation for the job market upon graduation; and

WHEREAS, a well-educated work force, with academic and work experience, contributes to a more productive society; and

WHEREAS, calling attention to the importance of student employment and its role in the higher education experience, the 2011 observance of Student Employment Week provides an opportunity to recognize students who contribute to their campuses and communities through their work and show appreciation to the employers who promote the student employment program by hiring them.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 10 - 16, 2011, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the value of student employees and student employment professionals.
