Looping in Beth Webb and Nicole Priester from our office on all of these emails.

We haven't issued the governor's weekly schedule yet and don't have an exact time for release, so feel free to send your advisory as you see fit.

We will plan on having the press conference outside, pending any weather – that doesn't seem like it's going to be an issue.

I will have to follow up with you on the table after I make sure the mansion staff can accommodate. Do you have a table available, in case the mansion staff doesn't?

-Brian

Rob, Brian and Chaney, see attached, the latest list of attendees for tomorrow's press conference at the mansion, plus our proposed run-of-show, updated suggested talking points for Governor Haley and the draft press release we sent last week. If you have any questions or concerns about this material, please feel free to touch base with me.

Few questions for you:

- Have you issued Governor Haley's weekly schedule yet? If so, we'll be happy to distribute the media advisory about the press conference as well
- Do you know where in the mansion the press conference will be held? Outside, or in a large room inside? We are expecting more than 50 people to attend.
- Does the mansion have tables and drape that can accommodate our awards and an ag-department spread like last year? I'm assuming we'll need at least a six-foot table.

Thanks for your help!!
