Jesus said in the Sermon on the Mount "So always treat others as you would like them to treat you; that is the meaning of the Law and the Prophets." (Matthew 7:12). The thing is, the "others" may be Jesus and God, the Father, waiting in eternity for their souls.

Suicide -- In Brief

Suicide is covered under the Fifth Commandment, "Thou shalt not kill." We are commanded by this Commandment to take proper care of our own life and health.

The thing is if a soul returns to Jesus for judgment at the death of the human being's body because the human being committed suicide, and because we are judged as to how we have obeyed the Ten Commandments while we were here on the earth, it might be a little difficult to explain to Jesus how we came to be before Him at that point. Thankfully, because we are still here on the earth, we can give the idea of suicide a little more thought.
