That was my thought too. He would do that because he's the kind of guy who wants to keep open the possibility of needing us further. Did you read about his latest lawsuit against the City of Columbia? The article referred to Sloan as a "gadfly".

We would want it with prejudice. He has the documents. Why would he have done that?

Got it. Thanks. I noticed he dismissed it without prejudice. Should we push for that or just let it be?
