

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20100427South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_109118339129980

South Carolina State Parks

at 19:15:04 on 4/27/2010 UTC · 🌐

Several of our parks across the state now have free WiFi access. Lake Hartwell State Recreation Area, is the latest park to add this amenity, for the convenience of our guests. Is this an important amenity to have at a park or do you go to parks to escape technology and the hustle and bustle?

Elizabeth Parrish Farish Important for those of us who play hooky.

at 19:17:33 on 4/27/2010 UTC

JS Ingpill I know I appreciate it. Especially when cell service can be spotty, it is nice to have a backup.

at 19:32:32 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Sharon Reynolds Yes it's good to have it

at 19:32:48 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Jimmy Kinard Great to have. If you want to ESCAPE, leave the computer at home.

at 19:39:55 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Barbara Anne Mischung It's great to have. Sometimes in order to sneak away I still have to take a little work with me and having computer access is essential for me in my job.

at 19:45:54 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Dana Smith Wow Lake Hartwell is my fav place to camp. We go there at least once a month. Nice to know!

at 19:55:39 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Beverly Sims Mills I think it is great to have!

at 20:02:19 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Lance L Mumford I like it, I check the weather on my ipod. I used it at Poinsett the last time I was there.

at 20:04:37 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Karen White I am very excited and also think this is great! :)

at 20:06:03 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Kimberly Duncan Great to have. I'd like to stay at a state park for my own "personal business" retreat -- just for me to be alone and plan, research and write. Computer is a must. Every day all the time.

at 20:06:34 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Chris Errol Maw There are certain things you want to escape, but your computer is not one of them...Gotta still be able to see your friends on FB!

at 20:14:08 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Kelly Martin You have to roll with the times!

at 20:14:59 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Ken Kirkley How do we find out which parks have this feature? Trust me...I will put it to use. There are times that I camp while still working. This would be a big help!

at 20:22:00 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Barbara Sanders I think this is wonderful! The people that don't want to use it don't have to and the ones that do can.....

at 20:33:18 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Tara Michelle Nettles Weaver Awesome!! Sometimes when I have grad school homework

we choose other campgrounds with access as opposed to state parks b/c I know I don't have access. I'd rather be at a SC State park anyway! Thanks for adding this feature :)
at 20:45:06 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Terry Creech Colyer Never hurts to be able to check the ol' weather map...
at 23:42:35 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Beverly Malley Simpson I like to have internet, particularly in an unfamiliar area. I can look up the closest grocery store, restaurants (if needed). Movies if it rains. it is great!
at 23:47:59 on 4/27/2010 UTC

Roy Anderson I wouldn't call it an "important amenity" but it certainly is a helpful one. Whether it's worth it to make it completely camping-area-wide (it comes to folks) or just picnic-shelter-wide (folks come to it) is probably something that needs to be handled on a park by park expense basis. Off the cuff, I'd say that parks that have heavy useage of RV's and cabins would probably use it more than parks with heavy useage of primitive sites. I bring my laptop with me when we rent an RV or cabin, but I never bring it when we use our tent.
at 2:50:03 on 4/28/2010 UTC

Kathi Guertin Grace Important-- just for a short time to keep up (so you can truly enjoy the rest of your visit!) Is it available @ huntington?
at 10:36:05 on 4/28/2010 UTC

Beverly Simmons Shelley Can I have both, please!
at 19:38:19 on 4/28/2010 UTC