Marcia, our contact over at the White House got the two deadlines confused and thought that the waiver deadline was extended till April 4th, and subsequently gave us bad information.

Scott,

The message we received was that the deadline to apply for grant funds has been moved to April 4, 2008. The grant funds deadline was extended due to the request made by NGA, NCSL, and AAMVA to DHS after North Carolina pulled out of the lead for the multi-state grant request. The deadline to apply for an extension request is still March 31, 2008.

Below is the text that was sent to us this morning:

Sent on behalf of Grant Programs Directorate

All,

This message shall serve as notification to all State Homeland Security Agency Contacts/Officials and State Departments of Motor Vehicles that the due date for submission of the FY 2008 REAL ID Demonstration Grant Program has been extended to April 4, 2008. Eligible applicants for the FY 2008 REAL ID Demonstration Grant Program are State Drivers' License Issuance Authorities (DLA); i.e., State Public Safety Agencies/Departments and/or State Motor Vehicle Administrators. Information and grant guidance for the submission of FY 2008 REAL ID Demonstration Grant Program applications can be found at <<http://www.grants.gov/>> www.grants.gov. For additional information regarding grant application procedures please contact FEMA/GPD's Centralized Scheduling and Information Desk (CSID) at <<mailto:ASKCSID@dhs.gov>> ASKCSID@dhs.gov, or by dialing 1-800 368 6498 to speak with a FEMA/GPD program analyst."

Thank you,

Centralized Scheduling and Information Desk
