at 14:51:23 on 5/01/2020 UTC

Kay Baker Not sure how SC got rated an F when our cases are certainly lower than a lot of other places. If other state residents start traveling here then it will get worse.

Sara Slovacek Greene this sight is a joke. North Carolina has two counties with ZERO reported cases and this sight rates them C- and D+... so what does it really have to share. I do agree to no interstate travel, but wanted to share this site is not the tell all. Get all the facts..

Pete Kucera No one ever reads/thinks/investigates beyond the title. SMDH. If you did, you would realize when they say reopen, they mean with a bunch of qualifications, often putting in danger the definition of open. As far as I understand it, they only allow a very limited number, and then they close the gates and don't allow you to wait. Anyone know if I am incorrect? Title should say, South Carolina Parks to sort of, kinda, barely open?? And then all these commenting people thinking this is all great, are going to go out, find out reality, come back bitching on social media, "but muh parks?"
