They're still shooting for a July 1st go-live date. I'm supposed to get another update in a week or so.

Christian,

Thank you so much for the update. I hope everything progresses as planned and I will keep in touch over the next few months.

How is the SAP Budgeting module implementation going? Has that started?

Respectfully,
Ian

Hi Ian,

It passed in the Senate and is now sitting in the House Judiciary Committee. By all indications, it's going to sit there for a month or so...the House will have the budget on the floor next week, and then they're on furlough for the two subsequent weeks, so it'll be a while before they do anything with it.

Here's the bill history, with a link to the current text:

Christian,

I hope this email finds you well!

Any updates from the Restructuring Act since it went to the Committee on Finance? I can't seem to find any updates on the Legislative website or via media.

Thanks for any insight you may have!

Respectfully,
Ian
