STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

a. Animal Shelter Committee

1. Update – Eddie O’Cain, HSPCA

Mr. O’Cain advised Council that the Attorney General’s Office had asked him to implement the quarterly inspections and to help the County with the change over at the Animal Shelter. He stated that he was there to help in implementing policies, job descriptions, paperwork flow, vets, etc. He stated that instead of coming in and doing an official inspection with a bunch of negatives, that his walk-thru was just a base and on January 1, 2012 he would come back and do an official inspection and that it would be done by the book. He stated that he would submit the findings to Council and to the Attorney General’s Office. He stated that Council needed to look at some issues like Ordinances and that overall for the way the facility is put together, that he thought it was a decent facility. He said that most of the positives outweighed the negatives and that most of the negatives were being addressed. Mr. O’Cain said he would be present to help as much as possible and that he could be contacted at anytime by phone or email and that the Attorney General’s Office said that they would help to turn this around for the County.

Council Member Plyler:

Stated that due to all of the bad publicity with the Animal Shelter that he would suggest that the name of the operation be changed from Animal Control to Animal Services.

Chairman J. Matthew Rivers: Advised that the Administrator could handle this matter.
