Re: Salute to Small Business Awards Luncheon

Governor Ha:

Thank you for your willingness to speak at our ceremony for our Small Business award winners. "The Salute to Small Business" has been a great venue to recognize the successful Small Businesses of South Carolina. We will recognize not only the Small Businesses but also the lenders that have provided capital so that the small businesses of South Carolina can continue to grow.

Please be advised that no remarks should be designed to facilitate, or be directed toward the success or failure of a political party, candidate for public office or a political group.

Thank you again for your interest in our programs,

Elliott O. Cooper
District Director, U.S. Small Business Administration
South Carolina
