Senator, we will be at your office at Middleburg this coming Wednesday at 8:00 am. They would be delighted to separately meet with Rep Bernstein or anyone. The company is CB&I (formerly the Shaw Group). CB&I is a large national company, with a large South Carolina presence, that does large scale disaster recovery program management. They have worked extensively with large scale complex recovery programs from Hurricane Katrina to Hurricane Sandy. They have some thoughts about how to try to get FEMA reimbursement for the dam repair based on experiences with different but similar unique circumstances in other recoveries. I will send some background material and links shortly on CB&I. Thanks!

Bob –

That would be great. Next week is the start of the ACA enrollment so I am slammed. Can you bring them to my Middleburg office at 8am either Tuesday or Wednesday morning? I have copied Representative Bernstein, Erlinda Doherty who is staffing the Senate Flood Committee, DHEC Director Catherine Heigel and Katherine Veldran in Governor Haley's office as well in hopes that perhaps they may join us. Let me know and thanks
