Subject: usc football tickets

The Ethics Commission just revised its opinion from last year on OK-ing USC giving the governor free season tickets to a football suite. Under the revision, the tickets can only be used for state business. ...

How many USC games did Haley attend last season? Were the tickets used for each game? (Butch said the tickets have been used for state business without the governor being in attendance.) If the use involved state business – which is a very vague term -- detail what that was.
