I live in your sister state of North Carolina and have recently been looking at property either around Charleston or Daufuskie Island. However, the recent tragedy at Emmanuel AAME church really rocked my world. Please understand I am a southern born and bred white woman, but the site of that Confederate Flag enrages me. It reminds me of the horrible crimes and acts of terrorism that have been done in our great country. For the love of God, take that flag off of the capital building and burn it. Why should the people of color in South Carolina be taunted everyday by that damn flag. Haven't they been through enough? Please show me some of the humanity I saw in you when you first spoke of this tragedy. Do the right thing and rid South Carolina of that tragic, terrorist symbol. Believe me, I fully understand the irrational deep seeded emotions many white people have with this flag. I have had countless conversations regarding the inane southern heritage argument. But stand up with a steel spine and do the right thing. I bet you will sleep like a baby and hold your head a little higher.

Sincerely, Patricia [REDACTED]

Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. It sends a terrible message that it is placed at higher value than your state and national flags such that it can only stay fully up or down, as per your state law.

As a South Asian, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too."

It does not "honor" confederate soldiers, it dishonors everyone in the United States who want peace, unity, and a more perfect country. Your action in moving the legislature to remove the flag will go a long way to helping heal the wounds in your state--much more than your tears today. Sorry, tears only go so far when a confederate flag flies in the background and on the state capital grounds of any state in the United States.

Dear Governor Haley,

I am writing to urge you to demand that the South Carolina Legislature take down the Confederate Flag flying outside the capitol building. In the wake of the racially-motivated murder of nine people, I see no reason why that flag should continue to fly in utter defiance of their deaths.

It is not a symbol of resistance, it is a symbol of hate.

It is not a symbol of pride, it is a symbol of ignorance and violence.

It has no place flying on government land. Take it down. Put it in a museum somewhere to gather dust as honorably as you like, but take it down.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

Please respond to the horrible events in Charleston by removing the most common symbol of racism in the United States: the Confederate Flag. I put "ethics" as the topic of this email, but I think it is an ethical issue that South Carolina faces at this moment. I am a born-and-raised Southerner, but I am also a teacher, and I have no way to explain to any of my students why South Carolina still chooses to fly this flag, especially at this time.

Sincerely,

Anne [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

As a fellow South Asian American, I urge you to take down the confederate flag in South Carolina. We have a long history of racist, anti-black violence in this country, and after the church shooting, it is our duty to step up and honor the victims by putting down a symbol that represents white supremacy, anti black violence, and segregation. As South Asians, our identities were born and created out of the black struggle in America, who fought for the right of our parents and each other to immigrate the this country, to vote, and be recognized in American society. Please stand in solidarity with our black brothers, sisters, and siblings by making the right choice of taking down that flag. Thank you.

I observed you several times expressing your grief over the terrorist attack in Charleston. Clearly, a meaningful act on your part would be to take the leadership role in assuring the Confederate Flag is removed from the grounds of the State Capitol. Nowhere in the World is the flag of a defeated enemy flown by the victorious Nation. Obviously, we don't display the German Swastika or the Japanese rising sun. There should be no place in the World where a Government demonstrates support for goals and objectives of the Confederacy. There should be no doubt in the minds of everyone in the World that the Government South Carolina does not support fear, intimidation and racism.

Dear Governor Haley -

Please remove the confederate flag from SC state grounds. I understand that the flag is part of your state's history - but that's really where it should be: in history. My family fought for the Confederacy, and while I am proud that my ancestors put their lives on the line for what they believed to be right, I am ashamed that they chose slavery over freedom. We now bear the burden of righting their mistakes.

Please, let us really get to work on removing racism from this country. Let's begin with removing its symbols.

Thank you,

Kristen M. [REDACTED]

Dear Gov. Haley, I heard you on Tv Say that your heart was broken over the mass killings in Charleston. I would believe you more if you spearheaded a move to remove the racist symbol of the South- the Confederate flag that flies in your state. It is the 21 century and it is time for your state to join it. There could be no greater honor to the good people killed in their church than to rid your state of a flag that represents hatred and the past. Sincerely, Mrs. Judith [REDACTED]

While the ignorant constituents that voted you into office may feel justified in their ongoing bigotry, you are the leader of your state. So be a leader and take down the flag... What it represents is reprehensible, and the racist murders in your state cannot be simply ignored by refusing to recognize the role of that flag. Take it down. Forever. Be a leader.

Guns, ethics ?? any of these will do. Remove the Confederate Flag from the grounds of your capitol and any other state buildings where it is now displayed. The war has been over for 150 years. It is not a symbol of southern strength but a symbol of a fight the south lost, a fight to keep a whole race of people enslaved. You have moved on. Removal of this flag is a small gesture to prove that. Let's see the stars & amp bars in a museum, the only place it belongs.
thank you.

Governor Haley, Please take the initiative to remove the Confederate Flag flying on state grounds. You've indicated that you are not interested in discussing policy at this time, but feel that it is the most appropriate time for healing. I believe that taking this flag down would, in fact, be a very good start to that healing process. There is no better time to acknowledge the (growing) disparity in our country than naming injustices and condemning those associations than immediately after such a blatant and horrific example of hate. The best way we can begin having healing discussions that bring people together is to be the first to stand against the root of these kinds of terrorist acts, clearly and swiftly. Please do the right thing; please take it down. With all due respect, Jennifer [REDACTED]

Please, please, please remove the confederate flag from the capital and other public buildings. I lived in South Carolina years ago so I am familiar with the state. The confederate flag means many things to many people but to me it represents division and slavery. We need to stop this prejudice and quit bringing up old wounds. And I feel somehow this letter will be tossed out anyway but I need to try.

I see that you are flying the American and the S. Carolina flags at half-staff. That's appropriate. Why are you flying the Confederate flag from the top of its flagpole? From the photo, it looks as though it's not possible to fly it at half-staff. Is the Confederate flag never lowered to half-staff? The message that sends is surely not what you intend, or I hope it isn't, anyway. And really, why are you flying Roof's favorite symbol at all? Please be courageous in acknowledging the role that symbol plays for people like Roof, and consider whether it's time to place human life above that flag and what it can encourage in people like him. Like it or not, for many people, that flag represents white supremacy. It represents the ugly, hateful, evil side of history and tradition. Ignoring or minimizing the importance of that fact is harmful. Thank you for listening to an American fellow citizen.

Best regards,
Sarah [REDACTED]

Stop talking about the death penalty. Research shows conclusively it doesn't prevent racism and murder. START talking about that confederate flag you fly promoting racism, hatred, and conflict. Embedding a historical fight for slavery and white supremacy into your present culture sends a message that contributes to the ongoing inate support for racist acts in your state. Take a stand against race hatred and TAKE DOWN THE FLAG.

Ms Haley, I saw you crying on TV in reaction to the shootings in Charleston. If you truly want to honor those killed by a vicious racial bigot, take down the flag that is a potent symbol of that philosophy. The intentions of the founders of the confederacy are abundantly clear in the historical record. I understand it would take legislative action to remove the flag, but I bet if you had the courage to get a ladder and a pair of scissors, it would send a powerful message. Save your tears, do the right thing.

I was not quite sure which category to put this comment in. I am a retired educator that has lived in Myrtle Beach for the last twelve years. I was extremely disappointed about your response to the question regarding your opinion about the Confederate flag flying on our state capitol grounds. It was truly a legitimate question. It is fact that our state does need to heal after the shooting, however, you dodged the question. What is your opinion about the flag? As governor I believe you are an intelligent and decisive person who must have a clear position on this issue. The citizens of SC deserve an answer to the question and should know how you feel, because you represent all of us.

Hello Ms. Haley,

I am writing as a proud student at the College of Charleston who has recently become deeply embarrassed and saddened at the state of her second home of South Carolina. It was amply mentioned in response to the shooting at Emanuel AME church that Charleston and South Carolina are draped with Civil War memorabilia that send a signal to black Americans that they are not welcome in our state. The Confederate flag hangs at a governmental institution, defended because it symbolizes the "culture" of the state. However, this culture was formed from years of historical racial tension and it is past time that we recognize that as a shameful trait to be overcome rather than something to be proud of. I ask you as a citizen hopeful for the progress of the state and universal equality that you reconsider the position of the Confederate flag and other South Carolina symbols of white supremacy including those streets that bare the names of Confederate generals. Additionally, I would love to create a force on the CofC campus that fights for modern civil rights in our city so if you have any advice for me, I will listen appreciatively.

Thank you for your time,

Caroline

First, let me say that I am deeply sorry for the loss you have all suffered in the state of South Carolina. It is unfathomable that someone could walk into a house of worship - a place we rely on for peace, safety and serenity - to perform such a hateful act.

I do think, however, that it is time to start rethinking the way we do things, that this is not just another random act of violence from a "crazy" person. And while this was an individual act, it is rooted in something our country has to start taking responsibility for. This is our history and by doing things like flying a flag that is representative of that dark past, we are adding to a dialogue of hate that, in some cases, can result in actions that are beyond comprehension.

That's why I have written to you to request, as appropriate response to this terrorist act, that you change the state flag to one that is not a symbol of violent racial oppression but one of peace and progress for our nation. Please consider this request. Thank you for your time and, again, I am sorry for all that your citizens must be going through right now. Prayers and thoughts are with you.

 <SUBJECT>Take down the Confederate Flag</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

It is far past time to remove the Confederate flag from our state house grounds. It is a symbol of hatred and treason to our nation. It was put there in defiance of the movement towards civil rights. We can no longer justify in any way having a symbol of hatred and racism fly as an official expression of the values of our state. If you care about our state, work tirelessly with the legislature to have it removed. Don't claim you can't do anything. Have some guts. If you want to try to claim or accept the claim that it is about heritage and state's rights, please read the reasons given by SC for secession from the Union. It is available at http://avalon.law.yale.edu/19th_century/csa_scarsec.asp . It clearly states that it was all about owning slaves. It makes me sick that we still fly that flag over our capital grounds. I am a native and resident of SC.

 <SUBJECT>It's time.</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

It's time to take the confederate flag down from government buildings. I chose "Ethics" as the topic for this e-mail, because while it is a Government Affairs issue and could fall under many categories, truly the overarching fact is that it is unethical to fly this flag at government buildings. It is a symbol of hatred and tyranny for multitudes of people (and not only black people). It's time to stop disrespecting the majority of people, who find it offensive. It's time to stop disrespecting the black population of the state that you govern. It's time to stop disrespecting a population that makes up at least a third of the state. It's time to stop spreading hatred with a government backstop. It's time to stop implying to black people in the state that they don't matter and their opinion is worth nothing.

Please do not let these 9 people (including an elected official!) die in vain. Please let something good come of this domestic terrorist act. Please agree that it is time and simply have the flag removed. No matter what your politics, this is a HUMAN issue. It's not Republican or Democrat. It's human. You consider yourself a Christian, so please stop spreading hate. God would certainly not want a symbol of oppression to be flying prominently with government approval.

The country is so polarized and divided and partisan, now. Please do not continue to promote that agenda. It's time for inclusivity. It's time to start embracing our fellow Americans. We're all in this together and all this rhetoric of disrespect and prejudice is tearing us apart. We are so much stronger together. There are plenty of enemies outside our borders that we can fight against, we do not need to be fighting with each other. Please do the right thing and have the confederate flag taken down from all government buildings as a sign of respect and an olive branch to start the healing and stop the hating.

It's time. It is simply time.

Madame,

With all do respect I implore you to do what is necessary to have the Confederate flag, a hurtful symbol of our nation's hateful past, lowered in honor of the victims of the AME Church immediately and ultimately removed permanently. Visual reminders like this are hurtful and damaging especially during times when healing and reconciliation are so desperately needed.

Thank you in advance,

Yodit [REDACTED] (from Mi but still hurt by the image of your flag)

My great grandfather was in the Iowa 13th Volunteer regiment that removed the flag in 1865. He fought and lived through Vicksburg, Chattanooga, Atlanta, and the march to the sea. To fly that flag in a reunited nation is an act of treason. It is symbolic of slavery and continued racism which results in shootings such as the one in Charleston this week. We need more than tears; we need action. Symbolic action is a place to start.

Gov. Haley:

Prior to this week, the Confederate Flag on the grounds was an annoyance to me, but one that I recognized was a result of a compromise many years ago. I also realized that it would take a full legislative session to remove it from the grounds, taking away much needed time, resources, and effort that would be better spent addressing issues that would move our state forward.

After Wednesday night's events, can't we agree that we could do well by removing the Confederate Flag from the grounds all together? South Carolina is better than this!

Dear Governor Nikki Haley,

I would like to request that you empower the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina to burn and destroy the Confederate Flag in front of the State Courthouse in Columbia, South Carolina. I understand that you are unable to do this yourself, but given the shooting this past week of 9 Black Americans at the hands of a terrorist who built many of his beliefs and reasoning of the shooting on the beliefs on the core principles and history of the Confederacy, I would like to ask that the flag be burned or otherwise destroyed immediately, as to prove that this state does not stand by the racist and oppressive values of the confederacy.

Unite the people of this state under one flag, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. Thank you and I am very truly yours.

And then, get rid of the Specialty plate with the Confederate flag also.

I saw you crying on the news a few minutes ago.

I wonder if you are only crying because SC looks bad in the eyes of the world today.

I have a hard time believing that your emotion has anything to do with the enormous historic pain felt by black people, and others seeking redress of systemic racial injustice in your state, in response to yet another racially motivated shooting.

If you really want to show you value the lives of the people killed last night in the name of white supremacy, you will take down the Confederate flag at the SC State House.

Not fly it at half staff, TAKE IT DOWN.

It is a symbol of a time when white supremacy was unchecked by law.

It is a symbol that is revered by white supremacists today even more than the official flag of the United States.

Flying it at half staff will rub salt and pepper into the wounds (slave reference intentional) of those grieving the good people who died in that act of terrorism at Mother Emanuel.

That flag flying is a symbol of triumph for everyone who agrees with what Dylann Wolf did.

Take it down.

If your tears are real, TAKE IT DOWN.

To keep that Confederate flag flying over the SC state capital is a slap in the face to Black people everywhere. That flag is a symbol, not of "Southern Pride" as you would have us believe, but of the culture of racism that permits people like Mr. Roof to continue to hate. Until South Carolina and other southern states address their history and culture of racism, tragedies like this will continue. It's appalling that that flag is allowed to stay.

Imagine if you will being an African American living in the south and living under that confederate flag flying daily. Imagine how you might feel knowing the people who insist on flying this abhorrent flag also wish to return to the days of this flag. How must that make your constituents feel?

It's WELL past time to remove this. You represent all your states constituents, not just the racist white ones.

Shame on you until you start to "feel" differently.

I am a white, 58 year old male. I believe it is time to remove the confederate battle flag from the statehouse. Given the events in Charleston this week and the calls for unity and coming together, it would be a positive, long overdue, and appropriate response to now remove "the flag" from the peoples' of SC public property. The flag which is flown in front of the state capital is the same flag which the arrested suspect, and self-proclaimed white supremacist, posed beside. It is a symbol of a past, and repressive, time. Given the reactions to race issues in other parts of the country this past year, SC has shown we are a society which seeks out reconciliation and unity, not violence and further divisiveness. Removing the flag now would be viewed by the majority of South Carolinians and the country as a positive and bold action by our leadership and one which would honor Senator Clementa Pinckey.

Your Honor,

I want to let you know that not every South Carolina Citizen believes in flying the confederate flag. I am a Business Owner in Easley SC, a Tax Payer and most importantly a Mother of Two. The hate must stop, and that flag is a symbol of oppression. Nothing about the "Heritage" it supposedly reminds us of is worth the Hate and Oppression it represents. I want my African American neighbors, friends and customers to know that they are valued as Citizens and as Human Beings. After the terrible tragedy in Charleston this week, taking down that flag would go a very long way towards healing the State of South Carolina.

Respectfully,

Vicki [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

Like you, I am an Indian-American. I am disgusted by the Charleston massacre and by that awful flag of yours. If we don't stand up against the racist violence that flag represents, we are complicit in the senseless deaths resulting from racist attitudes and ideology. Enough is enough. Please take down that flag!

I was very saddened to learn with this week's events that have unfolded that a Confederate Flag is flown proudly over the government buildings in South Carolina. Having spent many summers there vacationing with family as a child, South Carolina was on my list of destinations to return to in the near future.

However, I will not be setting foot in your state or financially supporting any business in your state until the Confederate Flag is removed. I hope that you have been receiving similar e-mails showing the disapproval from those outside of your state. I cannot fathom in 2015 that one could conceive this would be appropriate. The swastika was also a part of "history" and another symbol of hate. I don't see any government buildings flying a swastika flag, do you?

Flying this flag is anything BUT American! If it's about the southern confederacy, why do I think black don't fly it? There were blacks in the south! ALL excuses for flying it come down to one lame ideal -RACISM

I'm signing because it's well past time to put the bigotry that flag represents behind us. Put it in museums, discuss the inhumanity and greed of the men and women who flew it, who sought to destroy our fledgling nation in the starkest terms. Discuss the mislead men and women who died defending the privileges of the plantation owners, in the starkest terms. And use those examples to illustrate how that history is repeating itself today.

Governor,

The confederate flag is offensive to African Americans and should be offensive to all americans. It is a symbol of slavery and pain. Whenever my family or the people of color that I know see that sign, it immediately tells us that we are not wanted there. Is this what your state office is telling us when you hang that flag in front of your building? Let's move pass this symbol of hatred and take this flag down.

Dear Governor Haley,

Today I am writing to you regarding the flag flown in South Carolina. In this day and age, I find it appalling that a state, particularly such a beautiful state, would fly a flag that commemorates one of the most horrific periods in American history.

My family lives in South Carolina during the winter and I have looked at purchasing a home, but I can't justify moving to a state that so blatantly holds on to a past rather than works toward building an inclusive future for all of South Carolina's citizens.

I urged you to replace your flag with one the represents the beauty of your state.

Sincerely,
Herbert J. [REDACTED] III

You may or may not care about voters outside of South Carolina but the presence of the Confederate flag reinforces the perception of your state as backwards and racially insensitive. The argument that the confederate flag should remain because it honors civil war casualties is similar to the argument that the swastika should remain because honors german casualties of WWII

The inherent hypocrisy of your governor's tears while the confederate flag still stands is an embarrassment to all concerned

While I understand that in the minds of some, the confederate flag is a symbol of South Carolina's history, to most, it is a symbol of racism and oppression. The majority of the country and world look at that flag flying on State grounds and shake their heads. How can a state government, in this day and age, continue to fly such an egregious symbol? There are so many racially charged situations going on all over the state and country right now. Please show how loving and supporting the people of South Carolina are by finally removing the confederate flag.

Shame on the State of South Carolina for flying the Confederate Flag at the state house. That Act alone is an insult to all people. Shame on you for not removing that flag when you took office. I considered moving to South Carolina to retire, but I will not move to a state filled with hate and symbols of bigotry. Removing that flag would be the first step to show you want to move South Carolina in a positive direction.

Hello! Born (1949)and raised "white" in Richmond,VA and am shocked to discover the Confederate flag is still accepted as a state symbol in South Carolina. Shocked!!! Outraged!!! Saddened to the core!!! I have had to work on myself for decades, weeding out racist sentiments I began to learn well before I was even four years old. To officially hold that racist interpretations of that flag are simply in the eyes of the beholder and do not reflect the interpretations or sentiments of the state itself seems to me a form of incomprehensible denial or simply resistance to dealing with racism in the state, even among law makers. Stop for just 10 seconds and imagine yourself as an African American seeing such a flag displayed/sanctioned by her state government. Simply that thought tears deeply inside - not just for those who suffer daily under white privilege and white supremacy, but also for this nation still severely torn and worn by prejudice - not to mention devoid of compassion. It is indeed way past time for South Carolina grow up and take a stand again all forms of racism, including symbols that celebrate a culture which enslaved human beings and treated them as commodities. Thank you for listening.

Dear Governor

In light of the overt racist attack of the african american citizens I implore you to remove the confederate flag from the state capitol. When terrorists strike, whether at a kosher supermarket in Paris or a black church in Charleston, it's natural to look beyond the specific circumstances of a specific murderer and ask about the broader cultural and ideological trends that lead to radicalization and legitimize violence. And in the case of Dylann Roof, we don't need to look far for at least one sign of this. A Confederate flag flies on the grounds of the South Carolina statehouse as a symbolic token of the state's official ideological solidarity with the cause of fighting and dying for the purpose of enslaving black people.

Take the flag down Governor. Remove the racist symbol that so many citizens of your state still worship as a symbol of ongoing racism and slavery.

Sincerely,
 Jason M [REDACTED] MD

They say that the Confederate flag over the SC state capital can't be lowered to half mast because it's not on a pulley system. Well, I think lowering it to half mast would actually be a travesty, because it would be like a KKK member in full dress showing up at a funeral for one of the victims of Wednesday's shooting. The SC General Assembly should take this opportunity to do the right thing: take the flag down permanently. Now. And I say this as somewhat of an insider - not a native of SC, but an alumnus of the University of South Carolina who got his college education often discomfited by the shadow of the heritage of the Confederacy on that otherwise beautiful campus. <http://www.msnbc.com/.south-carolinas-confederate-flag-not..>

 <SUBJECT>Confederate Battle Flag</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Governor Haley,

Reflecting on this date, 19th June, a day where the voice of freedom finally reached the Sate of Texas. The Emancipation Proclamation declared that slave labor in the United States was indeed against the law. Civil War had brought about an unintended conscience of a war fought for free labor vs. paid labor., freedom for the stolen African people brought to this land to build the infrastructure and the economic prosperity of a new nation. This war's symbolism, and the 10-12 million blacks who died, and were fed to sharks on the way to this new land, is neither taught in schools nor addressed in the history of the building of this country, past or present. However, what is addressed is addressed by history past and present, is the symbol of this war on humanity that degraded, destroyed and still leaves the stench of death in the nostrils of consciences when the wind blows a flag, a battle flag, that is allowed to fly over a the State of South Carolina. The death penalty for one man that allowed this symbolism of hatred to permeate his consciences ness, as well as his soul, can not eliminate this symbolism of hatred that flys over a state's capitol, as a symbol of the south rising again through violence against a race that was forced to become immigrants, laborers, sexual objects, and whipping posts that established a white elitist attitude of superiority and laws that enforce the symbolism, (flag), to reestablish the "superiority," prominence and power the south once held. My friend, Pastor Tyran [REDACTED] spoke of a friend who best describes what we are facing now (Develon [REDACTED]) coined a word "environmental racism".

If institutional racism is the systematic racist policies and practices perpetuated at the Bureaucratic level, then environmental racism is the aftermath of that. We are facing the aftermath and the repercussions of institutional racism. The refusal to address symbolism stagnates the grow of race relations and perpetuates the grow of environmental racism, Governor Haley.

A symbol, by definition, conveys a culturally-accepted meaning. No matter what one believes, no individual or group can assign interpretations or confer subtleties to a symbol. The confederate flag is a symbol of racism and bigotry, and flying that flag at the state capitol condones and encourages acts of racism and bigotry.

Governor Haley, for the sake of decency, please take down that flag.

Ms. Haley,

Please take the flag symbolizing the losing army in the Civil War, which sought to divide this country and no longer be a part of it. It should not be a part of your government as it instigates extremists to continue the treason for which has always stood.

Waving the Confederate flag on government property tells the public that SC still supports and advocates a racist declaration of war on America, a desire to separate and segregate. It's only purpose is the defy this country and continue its original mission, defined by racial hatred. Be part of America again, take it down and save lives. Do not be responsible for more deaths in the name of hate, racism, ignorance, and the Confederate flag you apparently support. Stop extremism, take a Christian stand again murder.

<SUBJECT>Confederate Flags on Government Buildings Must Be Removed</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

The purpose of this communication is to voice my opinion: It IS time to take down the confederate symbol of hatred, slavery, persecution, and terror that is flying on any government building. The very appearance of that flag attached to the government of any City, County or State office is a clear endorsement of the division between white radicals who teach and encourage hatred toward everyone of color. Take down those flags and be a positive example for all southern states who are hanging on to hatred and anger. This is not the civil war era and the repulsive flag is a daily reminder of the torture of African Americans that continues today in your city and state. Hatred is taught and that disgusting flag is a symbol of racism. What are you thinking? Take down that flag immediately and be an example of healing for all of your citizens. There is NO valid reason whatsoever to fly that flag. Take your heads out of the past and heal yourselves. Be a leader. Thank you.

As a resident, homeowner, taxpayer, and most importantly a mother and a friend of the citizens of this state and country I am asking you to take down the Confederate Flag which flies at the state capitol. This flag flies as a symbol of hatred for an entire race and class of people who have been oppressed. It represents nothing more than enslavement of people, people who live and work here. I see the flag flying as the face of oppression, which it was clearly meant for when placed there in the 1960s. Be a leader for those who have lost their voice and lives. Take it down. Take it down.

You have my sincere sympathy for the terrible tragedy that struck at the heart of your state. It is only right that flags should fly at half-mast. About six months ago I was a participant in a Road Scholar trip to Charleston and we (several Minnesotans) thought South Carolina was a most beautiful state and the people who conducted the conference were outstanding individuals---both white and black South Carolinians were well represented.

When I read about the Confederate flag that cannot be put at half-staff or moved from the state grounds, I was dumb-founded. I only speak for myself when I say that this will effect my future plans to visit again. You have my sincere sympathy for the terrible tragedy that struck at the heart of your state. As the leader of the State of South Carolina it is important that you demand that the confederate flag no longer be an acceptable symbol representing South Carolina along side the American Flag and the State Flag. There is no equivalence among these symbols. The Confederate flag is a sign of hatred....hatred that leads to racial divisiveness...a very unhealthy divisiveness which led to the deaths of eight innocent and Godly black South Carolinians. They lost their lives just because they were Black Americans.....not because they were christians, but because they were Black Americans. It is time for South Carolina leaders speak out. Many say you have to be considerate of those who's families died fighting for the Confederacy....The Confederacy can still be celebrated....but the State should not sanction such a celebration nor accept such a symbol of hatred. It is time to end this madness. As the leader of our state, your statement against this symbol of hate will make a difference...I pray that you have the political will to support the removal of the flag as an acceptable symbol of South Carolinians. Even if corporations are not concerned....it is not their employees who are being killed because of racial prejudices.

Respectfully,

Melody [REDACTED]

It is hard to believe in the wake of such horrible tragedy that happened to worshipping christians and their massacre the confederated flag issues are being discussed but I believe I have a solution. Three flags, representing, the past, the confederate flag, the present the unity flap(not designed yet) and the world peace flag (not designed yet) should all fly at the capitol. They would represent the past, the present, and the future hope of the world and would satisfy all involved. My son is an artist at Winthrop University and I believe if a contest was initiated for the drawing of the two new flags it would be well received. Thank you for you time. May God bless you and this wonderful state we call home.

I find the use of the confederate flag within government buildings (and anywhere for that matter) to be offensive and malicious toward people of color. The very nature of the flag calls to mind the dark past of slavery in the south, the torture and killing of blacks in the south, and treason. I see no reason to have the flag as a symbol of anything that our current government stand for. This is not a Republican or Democrat issue, it's an American issue.

As I heard on the news and read about the tragedy that occurred at Emmanuel Church, one thing truly amazed me. Seeing the flag of the Confederacy flying over the grounds of the State Capital, and it not even being lowered to half mast out of respect for the lives lost, struck a nerve. I understand the context for history and heritage when it comes to the Confederate flag, but I do believe we must take into account the connotation that it also brings to mind, the bitterness of slavery and the history of segregation. The Nazi flag is also a part of history, but would we as citizens allow it to fly freely as a symbol of history and ancestry. I think not, it would only be seen as a symbol of death, destruction, persecution and prejudice. I do believe that the majority of citizens in the great State of South Carolina are better than that and am impressed with the response of the citizens of Charleston, who state that they are not black or white, but citizens who are better and deserve better, who want to heal wounds and move past another act of hatred.

The Confederate flag has long been a symbol of state-sanctioned white supremacy and treason to the United States. Please take down the flag, which is a symbol of racist ideology and violence targeting Black communities. As an Indian American, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

This flag is a symbol of past and continued oppression of African American persons in this country and the fact that it is still flying following this tradagity is a slap in the face for all who morn these losses and all who seek change in this country. please have compassion for those who morn and aid those who seek change for the better by taking down the Confederate flag.

Dear Governor Haley,

In the wake of the horrific tragedy in Charleston on Wednesday, a call to action is sweeping the state, and is making its way across the country. The confederate flag is a part of South Carolina history, yes, but it is also a symbol of racism and exclusivity. It belongs in a museum, and not in front of the State House. Please consider removing it from all government facilities. As historian Gordon Rhea once said, "The Confederate flag, we are told, represents heritage, not hate. But why should we celebrate a heritage grounded in hate, a heritage whose self-avowed reason for existence was the exploitation and debasement of a sizeable segment of its population?" Let us celebrate our diversity and move forward. It's time to take down the flag.

Sincerely,

Katheryn F [REDACTED]

My husband's great grandfather, Rufus R. [REDACTED] was an officer in the Union Army during the Civil War. At Gettysburg, his regiment captured a regiment from Mississippi and their flag was turned over to the War Department. Some thirty years later, there was a move to return the battle flags to the former Confederate states. This is what he wrote to his daughter: "The Grand army men came up to see me last night about returning the rebel flags. As I am one of the few living men who have a flag there (No. 40 Ordinance Museum, War Department) I have some views on the subject. I think the Confederate Army was very brave in battle, and that they had great generals and that they were heroic and faithful to their cause and that as soldiers they were all around good fellows, but nevertheless their cause was treason and their success would have ruined their country. I can't see just why we should give them these old trophies of war and much less why we should give them to a younger generation who took no part in any war but who would make a great glorification over them in honor of the Confederate soldier and in sympathy with their cause. Out of respect to the 200 of my comrades who were killed or wounded at Gettysburg capturing their old flag I object to surrendering this trophy of war service to anybody."

I'm an Indian American and I am saddened and outraged by your defense of the Confederate flag, particularly in the light of the recent shooting in Charleston. The Confederate flag has long been a symbol of state-sanctioned white supremacy and treason to the United States. Please take down the flag, which is a symbol of racist ideology and violence targeting Black communities. As an Indian American/South Asian, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Governor, I am writing to express my disgust at the fact that the Confederate Flag is still flying high today in South Carolina. It is just completely unacceptable and a disgrace, not only to your state but to the United States of America and to those poor families who are having to deal with such a tragic loss of their loved ones. It shouldn't be flying at half-staff but shouldn't be there at all. I'm glad that you are all over the news saying that the accused should get the death penalty if convicted but why not start with a powerful symbol of the hate that the individual represents and TAKE DOWN THE FLAG. I am shaking my head and will do my best to never visit or drive through South Carolina. Do the right thing and get rid of the flag that is a symbol of hat and divisiveness. Sincerely, Rhonda [REDACTED], Attorney at Law

Dear Governor Haley,
Our hearts are broken by the recent violence in Charleston. Our prayers are with all those who lost friends and relatives.

I have to let you know though how disappointed and disgusted I am that you have refused to take a stand on flying the Confederate flag. In case you haven't studied history, the confederacy lost the war. And the flag has come to stand for hate and racism - hardly an image appropriate for a cosmopolitan state like SC.

I urge you to take a statesmanlike position and remove that flag. What more will it take to bring the south from its backward positions on such matters. I often think this country would have been better off if the south had seceded.

We can't pretend to be astonished that a young man grows up hating black people, while proudly flying a symbol of white supremacy above our state house. I'll believe it's a symbol of "southern pride" when I see a southern black person display it. It's a vile, hateful reminder that a significant number of our citizens still feel wronged by the fact that they can't own people any more. And today, especially, as you lower the US flag to half staff in mourning while leaving the banner of oppression flying high, it is a horrid disrespect to a community that has been through so much. Take it down. Please.

Gov. Haley:

I lived in South Carolina for nearly 40 years before I retired from USC Beaufort. The best thing you can do for your State and your people in the aftermath of the Charleston shooting is to campaign for removing the Confederate Flag from State House grounds. That, more than seeking the death penalty for an obviously disturbed young man, would send a clear message of closure and uniting to citizens in the State and around the country.

To Whom It May Concern:

Though I reside in DC, I am North Carolinian whose childhood memories and adult vacations are vastly comprised of South Carolina's coastline, particularly Charleston. I am white and acutely aware of my Southern heritage. I am also aware of that history's painful layers and the way that history is understood throughout the nation and world at-large. Please ask the Governor to remove the flag. In a time of intense racial hatred and division, we have much more important questions to address than wasting energy on a potent antiquated symbol. As a white Southerner, I am requesting, please remove the flag for the collective future of all Southerners.

Sincerely,
 Danielle

Dear Governor Haley,

Let me add my voice to the many calling for the removal of the Confederate flag from the state house grounds. It belongs in the Confederate Relic Room where it can take its place among other relics that have no function in today's society. That flag has been and continues to be a symbol of racism that is offensive to many in the state, white and black. It is a deterrent to attracting businesses that want to operate in a state that values all its people. Particularly after the horrific events in Charleston, a bold step must be taken to reassure citizens that their government is sensitive to the history and influence of symbols. I pray you will have the courage to do this.

Sincerely,
Rebecca [REDACTED]

My response to Nikki Haley's tears: Then take down the SC State House Confederate flag!

I saw you crying on the news a few minutes ago.

I wonder if you are only crying because SC looks bad in the eyes of the world today.

I have a hard time believing that your emotion has anything to do with the enormous historic pain felt by black people, and others seeking redress of systemic racial injustice in your state, in response to yet another racially motivated shooting.

If you really want to show you value the lives of the people killed last night in the name of white supremacy, you will take down the Confederate flag at the SC State House.

Not fly it at half staff, TAKE IT DOWN.

It is a symbol of a time when white supremacy was unchecked by law.

It is a symbol that is revered by white supremacists today even more than the official flag of the United States.

Flying it at half staff will rub salt and pepper into the wounds (slave reference intentional) of those grieving the good people who died in that act of terrorism at Mother Emanuel.

That flag flying is a symbol of triumph for everyone who agrees with what Dylann Wolf did.

Take it down.

If your tears are real, TAKE IT DOWN.

 <SUBJECT>Take Down the Confederate Flag!</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

In the wake of the recent Charleston church shooting, I was shocked and appalled to learn that the State of South Carolina continues to fly the confederate flag. Every citizen of South Carolina should be ashamed!

It is 2015. The US Civil war ended 150 years ago. The confederates lost. They no longer exist as a nation, a state, or a political party. We are ONE NATION, under God, and it's time that you folks acknowledge that. You cannot - and should not - continue to accept and embrace the vestiges of those bigoted, hateful ideologies of the past. It's embarrassing to South Carolina, and to the entire United States of America!

Take down the confederate flag and join the rest of the USA in 2015!

Most sincerely,

Mark [REDACTED]

Madame Governor.

For our family, no vacations to Myrtle Beach. The rebel flag may be a point of pride to some people, but for us it is simply mean spirited to fly it after the black people were murdered in church. It's very mean spirited. We can spend our time somewhere else.

 <SUBJECT>Confederate flag</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Carl von Clausewitz, a Prussian military theorist wrote "War is a continuation of politics by other means". In the case of the confederate flag we have - Politics as a continuation of war by other means. The reality is the north won the civil war and the Federal Government has allowed South Carolina (and others), to display the flag of the enemy. Let's call it what it is - institutionalized racism. A political entity wins a war and allows the conquered to fly their flag? If someone carries a flag representing ISIS or a Swastika in a public space in the U.S., not even in Baghdad or Berlin, what happens? We see the symbols of conquered regimes hidden, desecrated, and in some cases erased by their conquerors over and over, and we know the meaning behind these gestures, yet the federal government has given the confederate flag a pass - Why? Clearly, there is a double standard at play. The reason the confederate flag has flown for as long as it has and remained popular in mainstream culture is the same reason we have police brutality on communities of color, the same reason they have not brought terrorism charges in the Charleston shooting and against the KKK and the other domestic "hate groups". Let's call it what it is...Racism and the root of it is that many "ethnically white" people hold onto the idea that, as a whole, they are genetically superior and people of color are entitled to less because of it. Any challenge to this ideology is almost always met with violence. The confederate flag symbolizes many things, but the overwhelming meanings it carries are succession from the Unites States of America, the continuing violence and subjugation of people of color and white superiority. And "We the People" seem to have tolerated and to some degree participated in this blatant institutionalized racism. I'm glad this issue has been addressed at this critical time. Our government should remove the confederate flag from public display. After all, if the "Civil War" is really over, then let's act like it.

I'm disappointed that the confederate flag is flying and you support it, if you want to support the deceased confederate soldiers, there many ways other than a flag that symbolizes the very worst of those souther soldiers and politics behind them.

I don't see the Nazi flag or Swastikas on any German government office? The confederate flag near the property you hold office,,,,,,,,,there is no defense. It is embarrassing for this country.

"the flag was created by a pro slavery advocate for a secessionist nation that claimed state's rights. however most southerner's didn't care about a state's right to choose whether they would be a free or a slave state. What was actually called 'popular sovereignty' would have allowed new territories to to make this choice and most Southerners did not support the idea. Instead, the Southerners wanted a federal guarantee that slavery would be allowed in all the new territories. After losing the war the man who created the flag told friends that he was mad at any southerner that changed their tune about the secession and also disliked those that said 'slavery is heresy'.

The flag

was brought back during WW2 as an unofficial symbol for the USS Columbia since it was named after the the capitol of SC... despite the fact that neither the state nor city city flag was actually the flag they flew on the ship. The Rebel Flag was brought back again in 1956 to protest desegregation.

It is and always has been a racist flag for traitors to this country."

It is not up for debate at this point, the flag needs to go. Do you know there was a movement to bring the original meaning of peace back to the swastika but the movement ended because they realized the world would forever associate it with the Nazi's. This flag holds true for an ENTIRE race. The flag symbolizes slavery, hate crimes and a sense of lower class. It's disgusting that no one in your office has the guts to stand up for the minorities. I am from the south and you know what flag I fly, the American Flag with symbolizes my pride for EVERYONE. South Carolina needs to fly their state flag and the American flag and hang that other one in a museum besides it's not a real flag anyway.

Thanks for reading.

this message is for the governor, do u really care about your citizens? Take down the Confederate flag or I will cancel my vacation, that flag divides us, it doesn't unite us. The flag offends me, I would prefer a UNITED STATES FLAG instead. Your choice ,do what's right,I sure it offends others, IT'S 2015

IT'S TIME TO REMOVE THAT STUPID Confederate FLAG, I FEEL RACE TENSIONS ARE GETTING WORSE AROUND THE USA, SO TAKE A POSITIVE STEP AND GET RIDE OF THAT racist Confederate FLAG. I'll give south Carolina 1 week, after 1 week if the flag still no down , I'm canceling my vacation. (Not that's fair)

The civil war is over ,
LONG LIVE THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

I'm a southern born of south Carolina. I support that battle flag as a sign of heritage, pride, and southern independence. And I do not like hearing how just cause someone has pride for their region means they are racist just cause of the flag that they use. In documented history the KKK use Christian, American, and confederate flags in their rallies, yet cause people do not wish to associate the other two flags, they pick on the smaller flag..

My ancestors (23 at present) fought under that flag!! They left their families to defend them from an invading army. Why would they face shot and shell for the ownership of slaves? Why did the Federal government not abolish slavery without going to war, other countries did!

Any state flying this flag is akin to any region of Germany still flying a Nazi flag. While it might have meant something different 150 years ago (i.e. taxation without representation), those who (rightfully) are proud of their southern heritage must come to understand that the flag is now a symbol of repression and inequality. IT MUST COME DOWN.

 <SUBJECT>Disrespectful and illegal lowering of United States flag for unqualified (by definition) persons.</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Dear Gov. Haley,

Mere words cannot express adequate sympathy for this senseless tragedy.

However, there is a serious legal matter here that needs to be addressed.

You have repeatedly exceeded the authority granted you by U.S. Code Title 4, Chapter 1, Sec. 7, Para. M regarding half mast display of the U.S. Flag. You too frequently lower the flag for individuals who do NOT qualify for this high honor. This honor is meant to recognize SERVICE and not solely a display of mourning. This honor is reserved for "principle figures of the Gov't" (Federal and State) and ACTIVE DUTY Military. There are NO provisions for civilians or civil service. Fire Service, Law Enforcement and civilians DO NOT QUALIFY!! By lowering the flag (however sincerely) beyond specified parameters, you in fact, diminish the honor for those who are to do this solemn respect.

Your illegal directive this week is, quite simply, ridiculous. 10 days!!! That is equal to the term specified for a U.S. Vice President. You also simultaneously are not complying with the honor due to Rev./Honorable/Senator Pinckney. He is due the day of his interment.

Also, as clearly specified within the Code, flag lowering (when qualified) is to be made by official Proclamation. Even POTUS must follow this procedure.

I eagerly await whatever explanation or false justification offered by you or your staff. I would relish an actual opportunity to discuss this matter personally since you really have no legal grounds or basis to defend your actions.

I'm sure that within your Oath of Office there is specified duty to OBEY the law and the Constitution.

I hope that it is not too much to ask that an elected official lead by example and comply with the clearly identified parameters as set forth within the Code.

Yours in GOOD citizenship,

Grant

<MSG>

Gov. Haley,

I learned this morning that South Carolina legislature still is flying the Confederate flag outside their Capitol building. I am taking time out of my vacation to write you an email to urge you to take the flag down.

I am shocked and saddened that our own government is displaying such a symbol of hate and racism in this day and age. Society will never learn to treat people equally regardless of the color of their skin, their gender, their religion, or anything else if our own government falls victim to displaying racist symbols. No, the flag is not a historical artifact, no more than the swastika is a historical artifact. It is a symbol of hate.

Displaying the confederate flag, especially in the wake of the Charleston shooting, is racist and insensitive. It is offensive to the victims, their families, and every person that is devastated by this news, and just utterly shocking that the South Carolina government still displays a symbol of intolerance and violence when they should be standing for justice, freedom, and acceptance. Set an example before another hate crime occurs. Take the flag down.

Sincerely,
Miriam [REDACTED]

<SUBJECT>The Confederate Flag in South Carolina</SUBJECT>
<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

I express my condolences to the state of South Carolina for the recent events at the AME Church. But those events were not an act of God. They were an act of man and the history of the south is crucial to what happened.

I was born in Burlington North Carolina. All my life I've vacationed on the beaches of the Carolinas, from below Charleston to Myrtle to Sunset Beach to Wrightsville Beach. I live in California now but my family has flown back many times to continue the family tradition. But no more. Not in South Carolina. I want the Confederate flags to come down. We all know they are a symbol of racism. My father taught me that as a child (my parents were white). The flag regained its popularity in the early 1960s as a symbol of protest against the civil rights movement. The flag stands for white supremacy, slavery, Jim Crow, and everything shameful about the south. You, as a brown-skinned woman should know that history, and how hateful and ignorant it is.

I know changing a flag is symbolic. But in this case it is an important symbol because it still has meaning. One day in the far future it won't have any more meaning than a Roman war flag would today. But today it still means something that is deeply shameful and embarrassing to a democracy. It's an obstacle, a dead weight attached to a living country. To act as if the Confederate flag stands for a virtuous history is a lie. That produces events like what occurred in that church. South Carolina politicians need to grow up and say what they know to be true in their hearts. They need to lead by getting rid of that flag now.

Thank you,

Dear Governor Haley

I cannot help but notice that in the wake of the Massacre in Charleston, the confederate battle flag is flying at full staff at the Capital. I am sure the shooter is very proud of that flag and that for which it stands.

This flag represents a losing idea (slavery), and the losing side that supported it. It has been proudly waved by the Ku Klux Klan, the American Nazi Party, the Aryan Nations Church, and every other mob of bigots, racists, and similar knuckle-draggers. It has been co opted by outlaw motorcycle gangs, anti government people like Cliven Bundy's supporters, and a host of other wing nuts who have nothing to do with the Civil War.

If you must honor your confederate ancestors, may I humbly suggest the Stars and Bars flag as a substitute? It is less easily recognized and does not have the racist bigot baggage and bloodshed associated with the Confederate Battle Flag, aka THE LOSER FLAG.

The Loser Flag's time has passed and this horrible mass murder is a fine opportunity to make a statement against racism and take that damned flag down.

Dear Governor Haley,

I have visited your state, and a number of the other Southern states a number of times for business. Whenever I have visited, I am always shocked when I see the Confederate flag on a vehicle or flying on a flag pole.

The Confederate flag, to me, represents the same thing that the flag of ISIS terrorists represents. Hatred. Pure and simple hatred.

It does not represent Southern pride or spirit or self-assurance. It represents hate, oppression and Tyranny.

It is time to take that flag down once and for all. It is time for the you and the other leaders of your beautiful state to stand tall and proud when you announce the removal of the Confederate flag from all government property in your state.

It is time to lead your people.

I'm a southern born of south Carolina. I support that battle flag as a sign of heritage, pride, and southern independence. And I do not like hearing how just cause someone has pride for their region means they are racist just cause of the flag that they use. In documented history the KKK use Christian, American, and confederate flags in their rallies, yet cause people do not wish to associate the other two flags, they pick on the smaller flag..

Ms. Governor -

I understand why you defend that disgusting flag. You think it honors some dead racists who committed treason against this great country and therefore they should be remembered by the sacrifices they made to your great state. Sure, I get that. But by defending that flag, it says, to me, that you believe that what those dead racists did, by committing treason against this great country, was the right thing to do at the time. So what does that say about YOU? I mean, how do YOU think those dead racists would feel about having a WOMAN of COLOR running their state? Do YOU think they would support you the way they supported the rest of the country during that time? As a woman, and one of color no less, I have a feeling that those dead, traitorous, racists would not take to kindly to anything you had to say, at all. I also have a feeling they could care less what you would think of them. So, it says a lot to me, that you do care about them enough to support them by flying that flag, no matter the insult it is to the rest of the country. As a white, northern woman, that flag, supported by the state, is not only an affront to me personally, but as a citizen of the United States, is a slap in the face to ALL the citizens of this great country. Many people died to disavow the symbolism of that flag. To still have it flying in a state square, is just disgusting and the fact that you don't think so is just as repulsive. SHAME ON YOU!!! SHAME ON ALL OF YOU!!!

Best Regards,

Laura [REDACTED]

Dear Gov. Haley,

Racism is obviously not "solved" in South Carolina or anywhere else in the country. When I see the confederate flag (forgive me, I cannot afford it the respect of capitalization) flying over your capitol I am not reminded fondly of Southern heritage. That flag is a symbol - a symbol entrenched inextricably with the pain of the atrocities of slavery and civil war which, no matter how one spins it, was a defense of slavery.

As your own state's senator has rightly said, that era is a stain on our history and honor. Why ever should a symbol so divisive and adopted by avowed supremacists and hate groups deserve such prominence on government property which belongs to all of the people of South Carolina? As a compassionate person dedicated to public service, I'm sure you are aware of the pain the site of that hateful symbol causes to many of the citizens of your state, no merely Black citizens. Last fall you reportedly said, "What I can tell you is over the last three-and-a-half years, I spent a lot of my days on the phones with CEOs and recruiting jobs to this state," Haley said. "I can honestly say I have not had one conversation with a single CEO about the Confederate flag." Governor, your primary responsibility is to the citizens of your state, not CEO's. Have you heard the hearts of your constituents? How can you hear their pain and ignore them?

I know it is SC General Assembly's authority and not yours to make changes to laws pertaining to the flag. Please be a leader here and urge the removal of that flag. Those who love it have the right to do so and to wave it. But it should not be in a public square sanctioned by a government "of the people." It is offensive to so many people of all backgrounds, not just those whose ancestry is fraught with the painful scars of one of the most inhumane events of our country's history. Replacing that symbol of hate will go a long way toward starting the healing which is so very needed - in Charleston and in America.

Respectfully and thankfully,
Terence B. [REDACTED]

Thank you for your words of comfort and wisdom on the horrific events of Wednesday night. Our prayers and condolences go to you and to the families of those we have lost.

A "Grandmother Council" on the flag: As a Southerner with blood and marriage ties to every Southern state except Florida, and including the Carolinas, please allow me to suggest that Governor Haley appoint a "circle" (as a committee) of women over 60 (all women, all over 60) who are grandmothers, quilters, seamstresses, or creative fabric artists arrive at a consensus on two appropriately meaningful designs for a 21st century flag that could be then voted upon by all the people of South Carolina. This "grandmother council" (an idea derived from the Iroquois culture) approach to making the world safer for and kinder to our grandchildren and their descendants is an appropriate choice at several levels. Who would criticize such a gathering, for one thing? And who could criticize the voters having the final say?

I would like you to understand that a white Southerner makes this suggestion, and that I understand older perceptions of and attachment to the Confederate symbol: my grandmother was raised in the house with her Civil War era grandparents (a grandmother who had no idea how to cook or work around the house and a War-veteran grandfather). I wrote a newspaper column on Southern genealogy for several years and have a painting of the Surrender at Appomattox on my living room wall. Some of my blood relatives have Sub-Saharan African DNA, a matter in which we take comfort and pride. (More "white" Southerners should do their DNA.) Not only have we Southerners outgrown the period and the symbol for all sorts of reasons, like other cultural symbols around the world, the Confederate flag has taken on a specific significance nationwide through its appropriation and pervasive use by bar-room and arm-chair racists and white supremacists. The only kind and just course of action today in a civil and congenial American society is to retire it from the statehouse. Nelson Mandela understood people's dedication to a flag, and under his administration, two flags existed side-by-side. Our society is not so divided as that he encountered in South Africa, and we white Southerners can well let go of a symbol from two centuries ago that has become so fully defiled as a present-day symbol of fear, derision, and hate. (There is much to say about public use and reception of the emblem, but we all get that.) I feel there is a necessity to do something now, and the Governor's appointing a small "grandmother council" of women who are deeply in love with members of the younger generation and who are expert at putting colors and shapes together in meaningful, representational - even traditional "Southern"- ways would be an understated and potentially 100% effective way of approaching this political and public relations problem. Creating the council might alleviate the present sharpness of this deeply distressing matter, quieting the waters in the present and bringing South Carolina's people - eventually - into consensus. Replacing the pain and divided feelings that the flag now inspires with beauty, peace, and consensus is a worthwhile effort.

with great sympathy and all good wishes to you and to the people of South Carolina,

I was touched by your genuinely emotional response to the massacre of nine people in the sacred and historic Charleston AME church.

The entire country was brought to tears by the actions of a deranged murderer.

Now is the time for you to do the HISTORIC thing and TAKE DOWN that deeply, deeply offensive confederate flag from the Capital grounds.

The civil war was lost more that 150 YEARS AGO! Move on.

South Carolina was wrong in 1860 when it became the first state to secede in defense of slavery and wrong through the Civil War when it fought to keep people enslaved and wrong when it again raised that flag over the capitol in 1962 as a direct response to the civil rights movement.

Raised that flag in 1962?

INDEED!

Lindsey Graham was WAY off base when he said that offensive flag is "how we are."

You, Governor, can do the right and HISTORIC thing by taking down that flag.

NOW!

I am a white South Carolinian. I have called the Carolinas home for more than half my life. I am appalled that we still fly the Confederate flag above our state house. I am originally from Georgia, where the fine folks there FINALLY removed the Confederate logo from the state flag in 2003. What happened in Charleston yesterday was a racist terrorist attack. No matter how anyone tries to paint it, the Confederate flag is a well-known symbol of white supremacy and racism. The perpetrator himself had a license plate on his car with it. When my black neighbors see this, I promise, this is what they see. They see a government entity that says, "it's ok for folks to hate you, because that's our 'heritage'." I'd like to build a new heritage for our state. One marked by community, forgiveness, and a willingness to call out racism for what it is. One that does not fly a flag that is symbolic of our darkest periods. One that says we are looking to the future. Please, Nikki Haley, take down the flag. Do something powerful that is NOT for your voter base, but is the right thing to do.

So, I see you still proudly fly the Confederate flag over your statehouse. A symbol of an army that attacked the United States. The symbol of treason and sedition. The symbol of racism. And when you flew the U.S.flag--the flag of our nation--at half-mast out of your supposed respect for the dead in Charleston, the confederate rag still flew fully up.

Governor Haley, save your tears. Save your calls for the death penalty. We know they are lies. Every time I see that flag, I know whose side you are on and it is not the side of the victims--gee, did they have to catch him in another state because South Carolina figured why catch someone who's only doing what you wish you could do? No, you fly that flag so all the racist rednecks know you are with them. You flay that flag because it's your way of spitting and pissing on the graves of the dead.

Is that not true? Do you actually care? Actually feel grief? Actually think the shooter was wrong in his views? Prove it: Take down the flag.

I may not reside in your state, but this is bigger than your state. You shame our nation and you shame the human race. But, well, I'm sure it's earning you points with the NRA and Fox News. And that is really all you care about, isn't it?

Yours in horror and grief,

 <SUBJECT>Time to Retire the Confederate Flag</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

To the Honorable Governor Haley: The time has come for the State of South Carolina to retire the use of the Confederate Flag in all forms. I was appalled given the recent events to see the Confederate Flag in full display in front of the South Carolina Statehouse, not even being lowered to half-staff. The Civil War was a war against slavery. The issue has been settled, but it appears that South Carolina continues to hold on the belief that the issue is not settled. Today is the 150 anniversary of Juneteenth, the day the last remaining slaves in Texas were emancipated. It is the time to emancipate South Carolina from the shackles of its continuing connection to paying homage to the Confederate Flag. Introduce a bill in honor of the Reverend Clementa Pickney, who served as a distinguished state senator. Recently, the US Supreme Court held that Texas did not have to allow the Confederate Flag to be displayed on license plates. The same organization, the Sons of Confederate Veterans that has managed to get South Carolina to issue a plate with the Confederate Flag. The time to act is now, this Country continues to ignore the issue of racism. Even now, there are attempts by some to say the act of Dylann Roof is an act of terrorism. Dylann Roof is not a member of ISIS or Al Qaeda. This is an act of racism.

Respectfully submitted,

Norton H [REDACTED], II

Dear Governor...

As I watched your appearance this morning on the "Today" show, you struck me as very genuine as you talked about how much of a "hate crime" the AME Church shootings were, that was until, I saw what is known throughout our country to be "The Confederate Flag" still flying over your state buildings. That is representative of hate in itself, and you know this. You ought to be ashamed of the fact that flag still flies over your state, the ONLY state to still fly that flag and TAKE IT DOWN!!! When white supremacists look up to the flag, what do you think stimulates them? It continues to reinforce old racist ideas and killings of innocent people. That young man that walked into that church flew one, the KKK still flies it. When are you going to take a stand and put some action behind your emotional words of sorrow and regret over all of these tragedies. Really, it makes you look like a foolish liar to the American public. Oh, and I read some where that you won't fly that flag at half-mast, alongside the American flag that is at half-mast for the dead...you know what that looks like to the KKK-minded folks...now the hate flag stands the tallest!

I am horrified by the events in Charleston and the fact (unknown to me previously) that South Carolina continues to fly the confederate flag - a symbol of racial divide and oppression. The flag should be removed immediately from all public building in a direct response that shows the nation that this type of racially motivated hate crime is not tolerated. For South Carolina to continue to fly the confederate flag in the face of racial hate crimes is unfathomable.

Dear Governor Haley,

Along with countless others, I grieve for the loss of the nine lives at the Emanuel AME Church. I pray that your response will not be "business as usual." I believe that this is the defining moment of your life as a public servant, and that - for a limited time - you have opportunity to demonstrate exceptional leadership, courage, wisdom, and compassion.

I urge you to issue an executive order that calls for the immediate removal of the confederate flag from all state buildings, agencies, and properties. This will only make sense, of course, if your order is accompanied by your delivery of a speech from the State House, a speech that will name Dylann Roof's act for what it was - an act of terrorism by a white supremacist. Your speech would also explain your order as an important act, both symbolic and substantive, that sends a message to the people of South Carolina, the United States, and the world. Your message would be that:

"It is time, finally, for the citizens and leaders of the United States to act decisively, on every front, to end racism. One such action is the removal of the confederate flag as an authorized state symbol. The nostalgia for the "Old South" can no longer be a justification for the honoring and public display of the confederate flag. The people of South Carolina, the United States, and the world, must recognize the confederate flag for what it is: a blatant symbol of racism.

The removal of the confederate flag will not address the American romance with guns, or our underdeveloped response to mental illness. These are issues which also must be addressed. But today, let us take one decisive step to undermine the tacit public approval of racism by public institutions. Today, let the world know that the people of South Carolina have woken up, have seen the face of racism, and are taking steps to dismantle its last vestiges. Of course, removal of the confederate flag is a dramatic step - but it can only be a beginning. We will also continue this important work by... [list at least 3 substantive, sustainable, state-wide, institutional changes].

In closing, I pray that the nine lives lost this week in Charleston will not have been lost in vain, but that they will inspire all of us to finally end racism in America, once and for all. I call for President Obama, and for all Americans, to join us in this effort. God Bless our brothers and sisters of all races, national origins, and religions, and God Bless the United States of America.

<SUBJECT>Decision to Not Lower (or temporarily remove) the Confederate Flag after the Symbolic Racially Motivated Massacre in Your State</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

I am appalled by your office's decision to not attempt to do anything to lessen the painful impact for the 1.34 million African-Americans who make up nearly 1/3 of the population of your state by lowering the Confederate Flag after the tragedy at Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Your office's deference of the responsibility for not lowering the confederate flag to the General Assembly is an unacceptable excuse for your tremendous lack of social responsibility or empathy, especially considering that a special session could have been called by the governor's office and considering the heinous and Nazi-like symbolism that this flag represents for the largest minority group in your state.

Your office's actions (or lack thereof) are entirely indicative of why such a hateful racially motivated tragedy occurred in your state, and why removing the Confederate flag and no longer catering to its supporters should be a priority for the multi-racial governor whose efforts should, perhaps more than others, seek to heal race relations in one of the most historically brutal former slave states our nation ever had.

Dear Governor, I was horrified by your comments about the Confederate Flag flying above the S.C. Statehouse, especially after the events two nights ago. That flag is a slap in the face to any person of color, as it was flown by people who believed in & practiced slavery. It does nothing but perpetuate an attitude that needs to be changed, if you ever want to truly be rid of racism! The fact that you are Indian-American has nothing to do with it. The fact that CEOs of corporations haven't complained to you (probably because, like I did, they didn't realize that Confederate flag still flew over any statehouse), has nothing to do with it. Send a true message of unity & compassion. Have that flag removed permanently!

I realize I'm not a citizen of your state, but I hope you will take my words into account.

Sincerely, Patricia [REDACTED]

To whom it may concern,

I grew up in the Upstate of South Carolina five miles from a store that sold confederate flag paraphernalia. I grew up knowing that there was some connection between the confederate flag and long held racism but no one ever really explained it to me and no one in my predominantly white neighborhood or at Christ Church Episcopal School ever talked about race. I attended Furman University and majored in political science where my eyes were opened to the poverty issues in Greenville County. My work with Triune Mercy Center in downtown Greenville made me blind to race and color and extremely irritated that the confederate flag was still a main symbol of the state of South Carolina. I know that there are many generous, giving people, particularly in faith communities, in South Carolina who have moved beyond racism and bigotry. I believe that many more people will follow in their footsteps to stop racial discrimination and break down "the great wall of Greenville" dividing the cities richest white members from some of the cities poorest black members. This racial divide is unacceptable and must be changed.

As a leader in the state government, I believe that it is your responsibility to set a good example. A good way to start would be to remove the confederate flag from above the State House. This is a simple gesture with enormous social ramifications setting a precedent for people in South Carolina and other states still holding on to ancient history that causes so much pain and suffering in our country. If the state is going to move on, the state government needs to make an effort to do so first. If you don't have the authority to remove it, please make some kind of public statement asking for its removal.

See the number of people who support this in the below petition that is growing by the thousands:

I'm signing because the Confederate flag is a representation of a government that existed a long time ago with a constitution that supported slavery and segregation. This flag should've been taken down after the civil war when the confederacy was defeated and became obsolete

 <MSG>

Greetings Governor: Your heart felt statement on the 9 murders was clearly sincere. But, with regard to the Confederate Flag:

This is not the time for POLITICS, nor the time to re-engage the CIVIL WAR, nor the time for indifference!

"Indifference Is The Essence Of Inhumanity!"

It seems to me, the solution is simple:

- 1) The government represents ALL OF THE PEOPLE, not just white people.
- 2) Individual rights belong to EACH person.

Thus, the government of South Carolina cannot fly the flag because it represents one segment of the population and offends the other segment. The flag must not fly. However, each person who is proud of that flag, for whatever reason, can honor it themselves.

If you believe that you represent ALL OF THE PEOPLE of your state, you must have the insight, wisdom and courage to do so or you are just another hypocrite.

"All humans are hypocrites; the biggest hypocrite of all is the one who claims not to be a hypocrite."

--PETER WESTHOLM

"Is politics nothing more than the art of deliberately lying?" --VOLTAIRE (1694-1778) French Philosopher

"A word to the wise is sufficient, but a volume of words to the ignorant shall fall on sinking sand."
--Warren Bernson Eller. 21st Century American Serf and Pro-Baby Democrat

So questions are: Will your staff allow you to see this message, or will they withhold it from you?!
And, are you WISE or are you IGNORANT?!

God Guard, Guide and Richly Bless You and Yours, and Grant Unto You Knowledge, Insight, Integrity, Courage, Wisdom, Compassion and KINDNESS, Warren [REDACTED]

Gov. Haley,

I don't believe you personally have the vote to remove the flag from the statehouse grounds, but as someone with influence on the political landscape in South Carolina, I'm asking for your help. I hope this isn't (as some have stated in the past "political suicide") to consider, as I tend to think that you are probably for removing the flag.

I'm not a bleeding heart liberal, or a staunch conservative. Somewhere in the middle like a lot of my millennial friends. What I do know is that as someone who is building his career and family in this beautiful state; I see cracks in its foundation as some continue to keep us frozen in the past.

You have done some amazing work driving business to our state, and the upstate in particular (I'm in the Greenville area) is booming. My biggest fear, is that there remains a deep seeded racism that many cling to.

I've wondered about this for years. My family moved here when I was in elementary school, and was immediately made fun of for being a "yankee" (if you consider Wisconsin a yankee state). The same kids who would talk in this way are many of the same young adults who cling to the stars and bars, are viciously racist/hateful, but pretend this issue is about "heritage."

South Carolinians are a proud people, and you will always have the least among us making the greater look bad as you do in every corner of the world. But we can remove a symbol of hate, that wasn't added to the statehouse grounds until 1962 (in response to the civil rights movement)... shouldn't that be reason enough to remove it?

Thank you (or staff member) for reading this, as I'm sure many are writing you on both sides of this issue. I'll leave you with an article that claims that Robert E. Lee himself was against the confederate flag being flown at all: <http://www.thedailybeast.com/articles/2015/01/15/even-robert-e-lee-wanted-the-confederate-flag-gone.html>.

Best,

RB

<MSG>

My husband and I wish to encourage you to do whatever is needed to have the Confederate Flag removed from the State Capitol Grounds. This flag belongs in a museum, it is no longer morally correct to have it flying. It has become a symbol to many in and out of SC of division, of segregation, and of bias. It may be lawful to fly it but that does not make it correct. Especially with the young killer and the recent tragedy, it is more vital than ever to remove this flag. Descendants of the Confederacy have albums, scrapbooks, and other things to keep the memories alive, they don't need a flag. Please consider this a major priority. Thank you.

Please do everything in your power to remove the Confederate flag from all official use in South Carolina. It is an insult to all moral and right-thinking people in this country, and it is not a local issue.

To understand how repulsive this is, imagine how we'd react if the Germans started flying the Nazi flag over their capitol.

Whatever people want to say now, the Confederate flag represents a rebellion against the legitimate government of the United States, and it represents an attempt to defend an immoral and revolting way of life built on slavery. We cannot get past and begin to heal this destructive legacy until we are willing to become aggressive about removing such symbolism. It is not the only means to deal with racism in America, but it is certainly a beginning.

There is no justification for continuing to fly that flag that stands up to moral scrutiny. Take it down.

<SUBJECT>Remove the Confederate flag from the South Carolina state flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

I am a physician in Boston and used to spend all of my summers in Myrtle Beach and in Charleston. My family had a home in Charleston for many years. The events in Charleston this week are beyond devastating. I have a strong personal connection to that gorgeously beautiful city full of wonderful, friendly people. However, to hear you speaking about the tragedy while never having opposed removing this symbol of hatred, intolerance, and racism from your state house is incredibly disingenuous. This tragedy will bring people together, but unless the stars and bars are removed from the state flag those who support it will remain complicit in this mass murder. This flag is not a "part of history." It is a symbol of racism which fuels attacks like this. Now is the time to do what is right. It is your responsibility to remove it.

<MSG>

I am amazed that the Confederate Flags continues to represent your state. How shameful! Everyone knows what that flag represents, whether rational or not, fear of white suppression. Furthermore, why is that flag not at half mast? What is wrong? Do you wish to start a civil war in this country? Be better than the other and take down that flag. Show the world that WE, all Americans, refuse to honor something that is so painful to other brothers and sisters of color. If not, problems will happen. It is inevitable as the flag is a slap in the face.

P.S. I am a Caucasian daughter of a Klansman! I KNOW what that flags means to white supremacists and to be honest, so do you. Stop the charade. Take it down. NOW.

I'm Signing this because my ancestors fought for the Confederacy. It's not about race or slavery, it's about people that fought and died for their country. Some believes it stands for slavery, but many soldiers (like my ancestors) didn't own slaves. Slavery started 200 years in America before this flag was invented, since slavery was started while the American flag was flying over our country, does that mean it will be next to be taken down???? Do you realize the first slave owner in America to own slaves, went to court so he could own them, was a black man. (Anthony Johnson)

In light of the current situation and mourning your state must endure presently, I first want to say my heart goes out to you all. Please send this email to the Governor. Our country is hurting for those nine lives that have been taken from their families, from this nation, from those who would have been touched by those late church members. They were killed in the name of hate by a man who saw the confederate flag as a symbol that did not deal with legacy but with the unjust fear that African American individuals are evil. That they deserve to die rather than live. No, the confederate flag did not kill those 9 individuals. A young man killed Cynthia, Susie, Ethel, DePayne, Clementa, Tywanza, Daniel, Sharonda and Myra. The confederate flag has been adopted by white supremacists. Don't let those people look up near political buildings and receive strength from the false idea that America still allows discrimination and judgments based on one's skin color. Please take down the confederate flag at the Capitol building, at the very least.

Please keep the Confederate flag where it is.

I am a 63 year old white male, born and raised in New York. My father was from Louisiana and my mother was from Tennessee. I am proud of my southern heritage. I know that many people , mostly blacks , see the Confederate flag as a sign of slavery, but I see it as a sign of when Southerners wanted to be left alone and not have the Federal Government run their lives. The Confederate flag is just as much a symbol of slavery, as the American flag, after all , when Lincoln signed the emanicipation (sic) proclamation into law, it still allowed slavery in 2 states in the US.

Dear Gov. Nikki Haley,

You are an inspiration to women all over. You have an Indian and American heritage. You must understand the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi and Dr Martin Luther King. Yet your office/state still flies the confederate flag. You have the power to change things yet you do not show the determination to do so.

The Confederate flag's defenders often claim it represents "heritage not hate." I agree-the heritage of White Supremacy was not so much birthed by hate as by the impulse toward plunder. Dylann Roof plundered nine different bodies last night, plundered nine different families of an original member, plundered nine different communities of a singular member. An entire people are poorer for his action. The flag that Roof embraced, which many South Carolinians embrace, does not stand in opposition to this act-it endorses it. That the Confederate flag is the symbol of of white supremacists is evidenced by the very words of those who birthed it:"Our new government is founded upon exactly the opposite idea; its foundations are laid, its corner-stone rests, upon the great truth that the negro is not equal to the white man; that slavery subordination to the superior race is his natural and normal condition. This, our new government, is the first, in the history of the world, based upon this great physical, philosophical, and moral truth..."

I am not saying that this will resolve decades of issues due to racism, but this would be a symbolic step towards it. We plead with you to take action in this regard and serve the people who voted for you and those that depend on your protection.

Sincerely,

Concerned Citizen

PS. Ban confederate plates on vehicles as well. Seriously!

As a Minister, I wish to voice my concern to your stance that the confederate flag is not an issue. While CEO's may not be voicing a concern, the people are. "We the people..." people. People from across this country are watching... will the systemic nature of racism finally be addressed in South Carolina... or will South Carolina continue to allow the denigration of our brothers and sisters? My hope and prayer that YOU, the governor of South Carolina will take a stand against systemic racism by removing the confederate flag... waving only the flag we are all united under--the flag of the UNITED States of America.

Such symbolic display dishonors the diversity of "we the people..." of America--in all our colors and races and creeds, for it celebrates a period in time when we were less than our founding fathers called us to be, a time we finally need to apologize for and ask forgiveness from those whom we oppressed because of our own greed and fear. And might I add this includes your own race and people.

May today be the day when YOU as a political leader finally takes the appropriate, moral action and says NO MORE to ingrained, systemic racism.

Yours in Christ,

The Reverend Julie [REDACTED]

Dear Gov. Haley:

As an avid golfer I have visited Myrtle Beach over a dozen times in the last 20 years, enjoying the golf, beaches and hospitality of this great vacation spot. But I need you to know that I will never again visit Myrtle Beach or the state of South Carolina while the Confederate flag is displayed on public buildings. This flag is a symbol of the racism and terror of slavery, and with the cold blooded murder of nine black citizens in their church by a man espousing the very worst of what this flag represents, I cannot in good faith see myself contributing to the economic advancement of your state.

Please...show courage and don't give in to the worst of South Carolina...it's racist heritage...and remove this flag from ALL public buildings.

Respectfully,
Pete [REDACTED]
Phoenix, AZ

I moved to this state nearly one year ago and I immediately noticed the Confederate flag flying high at the state house, which I found to be incredibly disturbing. More disturbing was Nikki Haley's comment regarding WHY the flag continues to fly there -- because CEOs have not complained. Well, I am not a CEO, but I join the countless other people complaining about this issue today. The flag is flying at full staff today, after a racist monster from Columbia murdered 9 black people in Charleston. This flag should be removed, and never allowed to fly at the state house again. Thank you for your immediate attention to this appalling matter.
