I have adjusted the schedule to reflect the NO screening at the ambassador's residence as well as the request that each person ask to have their luggage picked up from the room as opposed to bringing it down by themselves.

Syd Jemery and I will go through the schedule at roughly 10PM your time tonight so please advise me of any updated version.

Made it to p 62. Am going to keep updating later tonight but here's where I'm at so far. Will send an update again later. Thanks!
