Dear Friends of the NRCPDS:

We are excited to announce that the National Resource Center for Participant-Directed Services (NRCPDS) is moving to Applied Self Direction. (Please note that some NRCPDS research projects will continue at Boston College.)

Applied Self Direction is an organization that NRCPDS staff, led by founding director Kevin Mahoney, were instrumental in creating over 2 years ago. Applied Self Direction is led by Mollie Murphy, a long-time self direction expert of the NRCPDS. The intent of creating Applied Self Direction was to house the critical work of promoting self direction. The mission of Applied Self Direction is to promote self direction so individuals have the choice and control to live the lives they want.

To learn more about Applied Self Direction, please visit our new website: www.appliedselfdirection.com

If you have any questions about this move, please email us at info@participantdirection.org

Thank you for your continuing support of self direction,
The NRCPDS Team
