Dear Colleague:

For more than 80 years, Social Security has been securing today and tomorrow for America's workers and their

To help secure your today and tomorrow we ask that you check your Social Security Statement every year because on the earnings information in the Statement. Errors could prevent workers or their family members from receiving

At Social Security, we believe that this is so important that on April 7 we will host National Check Your Statement awareness day reminds workers to check their statement and verify their earnings.

We're calling attention to this special day with a "Thunderclap" social media blitz. Please sign up on our Thunderclap action on April 7.

Thunderclap is an easy way for multiple social media users to send the same message at the same time from their social media account. Once you've signed up, you're done. The message will go out automatically from your social media account.

This is what your friends and followers will see on April 7:

"April 7 is National Check Your Statement Day! Secure your future,
#checkyourstatement today on mySocialSecurity! <http://thndr.me/Cf0S9U>"

National Check Your Statement Day is part of National my Social Security Week, April 4 – 13. During this time, we encourage people who receive benefits to create their own my Social Security online account. This account lets them get their Social Security business without picking up a phone or visiting an office. It's easy, convenient, and secure. For more help visit our my Social Security Week Toolkit and share materials with your members, friends and colleagues.

Thank you for signing up for the Thunderclap and supporting the campaign. Together, we're helping Social Security secure your future journey!

Sincerely,

J. Jioni Palmer
