rosemary.villatoro My most favorite camping memory was with my crazy funny uncle who always pranked me in the park. It started out peaceful but then we went fishing. I thought great! Nope. We were on a short low bridge where the biggest catfish were and he told me to roll up my pants and get in. Little did I know that catfish bite! Lol well I got bit by quite a few and quickly jumped out. Trying to trust my uncle after this he wanted to go canoeing. I agreed thinking this was really gonna be fun. Well shortly after getting in the canoe he started rocking the canoe back and forth. Well here we go again with the next prank. He rocked it just a bit to hard and I went over! Cold and wet but my uncle's laughter took over my anger and I busted out laughing. I don't have too many good memories of my childhood but camping with this man was a load of fun 🤪 at 18:24:10 on 12/09/2021 UTC
