Also,

S. 1163 was amended to include the DSS transparency language and received third reading in the Senate. It will require a 2/3rds vote in the House to be taken up because it is a Senate bill that did not meet the cross over deadline.

By motion of Chairman Leatherman, H.4632, the Charleston University bill, was discharged from the Senate Education Committee and placed on the Calendar today. This would designate the University of Charleston as a research institution eligible to participate in the South Carolina Research Centers of Excellence.
