

Gov. Nikki Haley
The Governor's mansion
Columbia, S. C.

Once greatly admired, the name of Nikki Haley is now buried deeply in mud. Wow! - what have you done? It is unbelievable that your praise and admiration of Marco Rubio has blinded you to facts. Floridianus loathes Marco Rubio because of his campaign promises and his strong stance against illegal immigration. But - as soon as he was elected, he did a complete turn around which angered voters.

My retired family and friends in Pensacola, Largo, Fort Myers, Apopka and the Villages would now not vote for him to be dog catcher. They will be the ones who will vote in the primary — not you! He quickly became buddies with Chuck Schumer and Harry Reid and championed the "gang of 8" bill which was full of sugar-coated gimmicks and promises which would never prove intended results. And - being a senator was beneath him because he thought he should be president of the United States.

Although he collects a healthy salary with mega benefits, he is never there to earn his keep. Most importantly - he has the worst record of any senator for not showing up to vote. His Florida popularity is a mere 31% - unfavorable number of 56%. And this is the character that you support and endorse?

"Con artist" - "small hands" - "wet pants" etc., etc., etc.
Come on, ms. Haley, Marco Rubio is still wet behind the ears and you will do yourself a huge favor by hiding your face for a while.
Keep it up - don't listen to the people and Hillary Clinton will win in November.
