

When there is no attending physician or midwife, then the father, householder, etc., should make this return. If a child is born dead, it must not be reported as stillborn. No report is desired of stillbirths before the high month of pregnancy.