Description/Significant Features:

This resource is a single-story house with a vinyl clad exterior and side gable roof. A front gable projection is on the eastern end of the facade. There is a shed porch on the western end of the facade and a shed porch at the rear. Both porches have scrolled metal supports. Windows are single, 6/6 non-historic vinyl units on all elevations except the west, where there are two pairs of similar non-historic windows. A small historic building is south of the house. It has a concrete block exterior and a gable roof. Two non-historic buildings are also on the lot. Landscaping includes a partially paved driveway and an assortment of shrubs and trees. The resource is situated along a busy highway.
