What's the best South Carolina State Park for fishing? According to our "Best of SC State Parks Awards" it's Santee State Park! We think it's a great choice, since it's located on Lake Marion! Congrats to the park! Now time to get out to Santee rent a cabin or campsite & wet a line!

Jill Barnes Nelson Love it there at the state park. Lots of sites where you can bring your boat and not be crowded.

at 13:26:20 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Jane Ochsenbein Only the privileged would know, millions have been priced out of our state parks.

at 13:37:38 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Jim Burch Fake news

at 13:49:28 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Tom Cole It's a nice affordable park. You realize they are self supporting , not relying on government handouts? You know how much an annual park pass is for all the parks very affordable. Your a negative Nancy .

at 13:50:50 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Jane Ochsenbein $32 for a family of 4 to go to the park for the day is out of the budget for many. It's not fake news, park admission just went up to $8 a person at our local parks. Look at their website.

at 13:51:56 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Jethro Bodine Jane Ochsenbein state park's are by far cheaper than motels.

at 13:53:28 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Amy Lee Barresi Jane Ochsenbein $3 adult admission. Self supporting. Thank God for the "privileged"☺ who understand this and help keep our parks open.

at 14:00:19 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Jane Ochsenbein Tom Cole You realize that these parks generate millions in tax revenue that the state takes for their slush fund and never gives back? There are quite a few states that value what parks bring, have free admission and fully fund them, as we once did? guess you'd rather have that tax $$$ go to Boeing or some other private entity? I'll stick with the many free federal, state & county managed lands, they're just as nice, actually better, generally undeveloped. It's sad the families & kids that would benefit the most from the educational opportunities and time at a park with family can't afford it at our state parks.

at 14:01:01 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Shanna Spence You're entirely wrong regarding admission to this park

at 14:01:29 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Tom Cole Buy an annual park pass !

at 14:01:44 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Teresa Gainey Jane Ochsenbein A park pass that covers select parks and includes Sumter state par is $75. You'd make your money back with 3 visits of $32 for a family of 4. I understand some people don't have the money but I still think it's a good deal for all the parks offer.

Jane Ochsenbein Amy Lee Barresi Where are you getting $3 admission, our coastal parks are $8. <https://southcarolinaparks.com/myrtle-beach>

at 14:04:54 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Connie P Frenzel Jane Ochsenbein . To maintain parks cost $$$. I ask for your proof about millions they make. There are people that abuse the use of the parks and we have to pay for others abuse.

at 14:05:48 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Jane Ochsenbein Tom Cole For families that are barely getting by, forking out $100 on entertainment isn't an option.

Jane Ochsenbein Connie P Frenzel Do you think all the visitors to the parks just magically poof there and don't spend $$ in the surrounding area for things like food, camping supplies, gift shopping? Here's the latest data I can find. Many states value parks and have free admission. Jane Ochsenbein Teresa Gainey It would cost me $15 in gas and hours driving to get to one of the cheaper parks, half way across the state. Those of us that live along the coast have to pay $8. It used to be an affordable way for locals to spend a day at the beach, not anymore. Have to pay to get near the beach now.

Penney Winslow Jane Ochsenbein I get ya. Sorry everyone seems to want to argue rather than admit they aren't available to everyone as they should be. We all pay taxes (yes even poor people) and our public parks should be accessible to all. I think even a free day a week would be a step in the right direction to giving access to all. Even the charge per car was better than the per person hike.
at 14:32:52 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Cathy R. Jones Jane Ochsenbein priced out?
at 14:35:26 on 2/25/2020 UTC

Penney Winslow I think some forget Why they were created and that keeping lower income people out is yet again another hardship/disadvantage for them.

Jane Ochsenbein Penney Winslow Yes, public lands should be accessible to all regardless of income level. We got hit hard along the coast from the past several years of extreme flooding for months at a time. It took a heavy economic toll on many, something many local families are still struggling with and recovering from. Going from the car rate to $8 a person is a big increase and a price out of many's range :(

Anne Darnell Jane Ochsenbein so what is your source and we need numbers , if you are throwing such accusations out that is possibly harming our State Park System. You seem to be the only unhappy person on this page. We would be happy if you let us enjoy our parks.

at 14:17:56 on 2/26/2020 UTC

Dawn Watson Weaver The most expensive passport is 27 cents per day, and includes your family. So your family can go to even a coastal state park for twenty seven cents a day. That's very affordable access. The parks are clean, safe and protected. Twenty seven cents a day for a family cannot be beat for value.
at 7:49:39 on 3/19/2020 UTC

Jane Ochsenbein Dawn Watson Weaver MILLIONS OF US HAVE NO INCOME!!!! Millions living paycheck to paycheck don't have the luxury of a park pass. Are you not watching the news?! We are more worried about paying our bills first. We'll go to parks that are FREE, most are, all our federal and local parks are, and there's plenty of free state managed land.
