Top stories in Washington, the 2016 campaign and politics nationwide from The Associated Press

Email not dis
View it in you

Good morning from Cleveland, Ohio, the seat of Cuyahoga County, home to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Republican National Convention.

We'll be here all week reporting on what is happening on the stage as well as behind the scenes. Here are some things people will be talking about today.

"WHAT'S THE LEAD, AP?"

Top stories in Washington, the 2016 campaign and politics nationwide from The Associated Press

Trump campaign chairman Paul Manafort walks off the floor of the Republican National Convention in Cleveland reporters. (AP Photo/Carolyn Kaster)

DAILY WASHINGTON NEWS

GOP convention kicks off as nation reels from more violence
CLEVELAND (AP) -- The Republican National Convention is set to kick off as the nation reels from another deadl dissident delegates stage a longshot, last-gasp effort to deny Donald Trump the GOP nomination for president.

GOP reaches for nuance on race, police after latest unrest
ATLANTA (AP) — Some prominent Republicans are speaking out about race, expressing empathy for the challen black Americans, after a spate of racially tinged gun violence that saw two black men killed by police and retaliate black sniper that killed five Dallas police officers.

Voters split over how to secure US from illegal immigration
WASHINGTON (AP) — Most Americans reject Donald Trump's proposal to build a wall along the U.S. border with support for deporting those in the country illegally. But they're divided on the presumptive Republican nominee's temporary ban on the entry of Muslims from other countries, a new survey finds.

ICYMI

Demonstrators march by police during the Shut Down Trump & the RNC protest on Sunday, July 17, 2016 in Cle
(AP Photo/Alex Brandon)

SUBSCRIBE HERE