Dear ADSSP and ADI-SSS grantees and community partners,

As a reminder, the National Alzheimer's and Dementia Resource Center is hosting the webinar— Methods and Techniques for Early Dementia Screening for People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities—on March 7, 2017 from 1-2 p.m. ET. Information about this webinar and the registration link can be found here: <http://asaging.org/web-seminars/methods-and-techniques-early-screening-dementia-people-intellectual-and-developmental-d>

This webinar will discuss various forms of dementia that are found in the Intellectual and Developmental Disability (IDD) field, the frequency of its occurrence and the importance of early detection. Also discussed will be the often-overlooked early signs, and techniques to incorporate the early dementia-screening tool into a routine healthcare regimen.

Mark your calendars for our webinar on May 16, 2017 from 1-2 p.m. ET – Providing Safe and Effective Nutrition for People with Dementia. Information for the webinar and registration details can be found at the following link: <http://asaging.org/web-seminars/providing-safe-and-effective-nutrition-people-dementia>

Please note, complimentary CEUs are available through these webinars. For more information on CEUs and approved accreditation providers, please go to this link: <http://asaging.org/ceus-web-seminars>. In addition, the webinar will be recorded and available for viewing at nadrc.acl.gov.

If you have questions, please contact Sari Shuman at sshuman@rti.org.

Thank you,
National Alzheimer's and Dementia Resource Center
