

---

From: pc <ttpoi2@gmail.com>
Sent: Thursday, September 24, 2015 3:20 AM
To: Haley, Nikki
Subject: Food stamps

Gov. Haley,

I'm having trouble sleeping because of something my 14 year old grand daughter told me about her sister, who is 21, has an illegitimate child, smokes pot whenever she can get it, does not work, and stays here as often as I'll let her.

Generally, she's with her next boyfriend.

I don't like for her to be around, because, she's a bad influence on the 14 year old. Well, back to my story.

On Tuesday, the 21 y.o. asked me to take her to DSS. I did. When she came out, she said, (gleefully), "I'm getting $354 worth of Food Stamps tomorrow. I'm gonna give you some of them."

Really?!?!, I said. How'd you do that?

I just applied for them a while ago. Told them I was homeless...

So, ok. I guess that is true. But, what DIDN'T she tell them?

Then yesterday, my 14 y.o. told me that the 21y.o. told her she just bought a bag of 'weed', with food stamps. I don't know how. I just know that she did.

WHAT????!!!!!!

Ok. I have heard of people doing that, but this is my first personal encounter with it.

So now, Governor: What are you going to do about this??
When are we going to require Drug Testing for Welfare recipients??

This is just WRONG!!!

I know there's a legitimate need for Food Stamps, but like I said; Drug Testing. As far as I can tell, that's the only solution for a bunch of "Do Nothings", who want to live off everyone else's dime.

Now, it's hit my family, and I REALLY don't like it.

Ok. The ball's in your court. This is important to a LOT o people. Not just me. Soooo?

I'll be waiting for your response. Thank you for your time.

--

If we meet and you forget me, you've lost nothing. If you meet Jesus and forget Him, you've lost EVERYTHING!