

From: Kathy Patterson, The Pew Charitable Trusts <bfuller@pewtrusts.org>
To: Veldran, KatherineKatherineVeldran@gov.sc.gov
Date: 1/14/2014 11:01:09 AM
Subject: Pew: The State of the States in 2014

---

To view this email as a web page, go here.

Greetings,

In its annual State of the States preview of the year ahead in state policy, Pew's Stateline highlights how Obamacare is rolling out, how states are looking to protect privacy rights, where the jobs will be created, how state finances are looking - as well as state policy issues and trends through the prism of the November elections.

See the entire State of the States collection of stories

And don't miss the day's top stories from state capitals around the country every day by subscribing to Stateline, the daily news service of The Pew Charitable Trusts. Editorially independent, Stateline provides daily reporting and analysis on trends in state policy. Our unparalleled coverage across the 50 states and insight into policy developments on a range of issues make it an important resource for policymakers and staff at all levels of government.

Subscribe for free on Stateline.org.

Sincerely,

Kathy Patterson, Director
The Pew Charitable Trusts

Update your subscription settings or Unsubscribe.

To forward this email to a friend or colleague, use this link.

This email was sent to: katherineveldran@gov.sc.gov

This email was sent by: The Pew Charitable Trusts
901 E Street NW, Washington, DC, 20004,

We respect your right to privacy - view our policy

Update Profile and Subscription Preferences | Unsubscribe From All Emails