scstateparks If you haven't heard, we are highlighting the 16 state parks built by the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC). - (3/16) Next on the list- Kings Mountain State Park. Kings Mountain is home to Living History Farm, a replica of a mid-19th century Yeoman Farm. Visitors can also hike the Ridgeline Trail to visit Kings Mountain National Military Park and Crowders Mountain State Park in North Carolina. - 📷: @kjean.12 philliplister We visited there last Fall and the facilities were in disrepair, unfortunately. Trails were okay, though.

sharon_richardson3 Any thought to recreating the CCC model in this pandemic world where stewardship matters more. With all the unemployed labor force- organizing clean-up and deferred maintenance work days could be a welcome break to stay at home, especially if we can offer the youth a way to help. Improving state parks and cleaning out ditches is good way to channel that productive energy and create good will, while preparing for the next season of unpredictable storms. Just wondering, the model worked before and
