Subject: Student Article on Gov. Haley- Interview

Ms. Adams,

I am a journalism student at USC and currently working on a story about Gov. Haley. I am examining her future in politics and how South Carolina is progressing on a national stage, both economically and politically.

I would love the opportunity to meet with Gov. Haley and get her perspective on these topics. Generally, questions I would like to ask include:

- What do you think the future of South Carolina looks like?
- How has South Carolina changed since the Emanuel AME church tragedy?
- If a presidential contender were to call you about a possible VP position, what would your first thought be? How would your family respond?

Please let me know if an interview would be possible within the next few weeks.

Best,
