

From:

To:

Date: 10/29/2015 2:47:37 PM

Subject:

---

On background: The task force will meet in November. Currently the task force is focused on implementing recommendations in the criminal justice system, victim and offender services and community awareness, education and outreach.

"The governor and the entire task force are continuing their work, and are as committed as ever to changing the culture in South Carolina, identifying and addressing violence issues at the ground level in our communities and working our way up."