The following has been confirmed.

- The trophy that will not be handed to the winners of this year's football game between Texas A&M and the University of South Carolina.
- The trophy will reside with the winner's governor.
- The trophy will not be present on gameday Williams Brice Stadium.
- There will be no official unveiling before the game.
- There will be a picture with both governor's and the trophy taken on Thursday at the governor mansion.
- Governor Perry will promote through social media.
- Governor Haley will not promote through social media.
- The Office of the Governor Nikki Haley will continue to not answer any questions from media.

Please call me if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Katherine
