

GONZALES GARDENS PARTY HONORS CHILDREN

The Record

4/6/46

Standing around the entrance to the Social hall in the Gonzales Gardens administration building are children of the six to 12-year-old group, above, who were entertained recently at one of a series of three parties given by the management.

Pre-school children had a party earlier in the day and teenagers were entertained afterwards. William R. Geddings, executive director of the Housing authority of Columbia, was host. He was assisted by residents of the Gardens.
