Not sure what you mean by count this for the day. We will provide the lunch. If you bring all congregate seniors, there will be no one to feed at the sites. Are you asking if you can bill me for the meal I am already paying?

Tony,

Can we count this as the meal for the day? Otherwise, we will have to give them a second meal so that we can count the units and get reimbursed for some of the costs of bringing people to the Expo.

Unless it rains, we anticipate this being an all-Center event with around 200 of our folks attending. This is significantly more expensive than just transporting people as we will have to send most of the Centers' staff if most of the clients come. The only staff that would not be there to assist our folks or to help wherever needed would be those handling home delivered meals.

Thanks,

Lynda

Hi All,

I spoke with the staff at Tri-City and they believe that the walk-in cooler will hold all of your items from Monday to Tuesday. It will be easier for you to pick up and we can make certain that we have everything and/or have time to take care of any problems.

We will pick up your order on Monday, May 6 at US Foods. We will thaw the frozen items overnight so that they are ready to use on Tuesday. You can pick up as early as 7 or 7:30 AM on Tuesday. We will put the cold items into a couple of Cambros to help maintain temperature. They are heavy and will require two people to unload them. They should fit into the Durango.

I need to order the frilled toothpicks and SC napkins (if you want them) today as they come via UPS. I will order the rest of the paper goods/supplies next week on Monday to come in with our regular Wednesday delivery on the 1st, and then get all of the food items on Monday, May 6.

If you like, you can fill a couple of your coolers from our ice machine Tuesday morning.

Lynda
