I think it's perfect and I like it better with that sentence removed in the last paragraph. It flows much better without it. I've put all the files onto a new flash drive. Want me to walk it over or will you send somebody to get it? I'm good either way.

Took out a sentence in the last paragraph and added business to her quote.
Thoughts?

Sure. How's the latest version of the one pager? Do we need to make any more changes?

Thanks.

Do you think you would be able to make another flash drive with all the Herbage items?
