Haley and Katherine,

I hope this note finds you both well and enjoying summer. We certainly are at our house!

Could you help me find some info I know there is someone in your office that handles this directly but I can't remember who so I am leaning on the two of you to help direct my question.

This is my understanding:

The Laurens County Auditor resigned due to health reasons. Governor Haley decided not to appoint anyone who had an interest in running for the rest of the unfulfilled term. Therefore the office has remained unfilled. The two men that had interest were not appointed and sought election. They ran in the republican primary June 14 and Jim Coleman won the primary. There was no democratic primary with no democrat seeking it in November. When will Jim Coleman take office since he has been elected to fulfill the vacant seat?

I appreciate how kind you both are. The Governor is blessed to have the two of you on #teamhaley

Thank you

Mark
