

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20130109South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_10151336278923166

South Carolina State Parks

at 17:20:00 on 1/09/2013 UTC · 🌐

BATS! This small red bat was spotted on our First Day Hike at Myrtle Beach State Park. It was hanging about 6 feet up in a small yaupon holly tree and looked like a hanging leaf. It was so cool for everyone on the hike to get so close to it! You never know what you might see on a hike in a SC State Park!

Melissa Burnell awwww he's too cute

at 18:00:20 on 1/09/2013 UTC

Edward Johnson I can always stop at MBSP, even if it is bat country.

at 18:01:49 on 1/09/2013 UTC

Diane Descoteaux See them often during the summer.

at 18:43:55 on 1/09/2013 UTC

Jana Hall DeHoff Hope population will increase

at 20:40:38 on 1/09/2013 UTC