Dear Nikki,

If you rely solely on a single thread terrestrial network, your agency is at risk for being knocked offline. No phones. No Internet. No way to get back up and running and serve the public.

When disaster strikes, you can rely on Hughes Emergency Response Solutions

<<http://pages.myhughessolutions.com/SM0A0u0kj010FV90300JZZ1>> – powered by advanced broadband satellite technology – to get your mission-critical applications back online in fractions of a second! A Hughes solution provides true path diversity, resiliency and the highest network availability.

And if your agency handles community-based emergency response and recovery efforts, Hughes enables you to plan ahead—before an emergency occurs—so you can be poised to quickly mobilize and manage your efforts. With our vehicle-mount terminals and flyaway kits, you can be set up easily with a mobile, self-pointing antenna system for instant, high-speed broadband satellite connectivity—even in the most remote locations.

Don't wait to plan ahead! Call 1-888-373-0235 for a consult today!

Check out these tips for staying connected!
