Re: The Job...

Dear Sir;

As some of my documentable record will reveal I have worked from my earliest age. I am a worker surrounded by an ipod toting, desk, and office dwelling people. And of my 30-35 years of work force experience I could write volumes. I have been exposed to decades of part-time; temporary and seasonal peak hire positions. In fact I have been bam-boosaled, snowed, and swindled all of my life in the work force. And please acknowledge I am not a whiner or complainer. I am a fighter and striver that has been surrounded by generations of zombie like thin skinned boobs that feel they are entitled and justified.

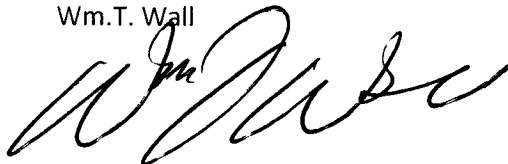

The unions sought to create safe and productive work environments and now work is secondary. Where a prospective applicant knocks on your door vowing to work,work,work and once tenured becomes the nightmare from hell. I just want to work in a human balanced environment. Is there a contract to bridge the needs required to "make america great again"?

As I have noted I feel the concept mustered by the California Cnservation Corps has great potential if managed correctly. Under the army the C.C.C. was a powerful force in the 1930s. Under a bunch of misguided California buraucrats you will continue to have a failing infrastructure of bridges; roads; water/gas piping systems; and human potential. Work now is all reserved for the few, special, lucky,and annointed work force individuals hired in complex lottery like processes.

I want to be one of the first to build the wall that will re-establish our national sovereignty; security; and economic stability. And I want to bring an army of re-organized; re-trained; and re-disciplined individuals. Young people full of life, dreams, and possibility that the C.C.C. has recordably squandered over the last 35-40 years. An agency that could and will subsidize itself and its people and mission to revamp the entire Los Angeles and country aging infrastrcture. To name just one thing that has been in the news...frequently! I need a job sir and this needs to be done...

Thank You,

Wm.T. Wall

Re: The Bloodless coup...

To whom it may concern:

Earlier this year I wrote many letters regarding the San Bernardino Valley College here in California. The incident involved my unsubstantiated and outrageous arrest. I have over thought the issue and I have tried to reason it honestly. And then I witness the roots of social disturbance at the campus in Missouri. And bingo it may be that the secret social police set me up. Paranoid maybe... but you define the issue as John Stossel did. And paranoid I am because these kookes are worse than the chinese revolutionaries of Mao Zedong. And it will grow to every campus. Because as I have written this generation has been poisoned with such concerns as free education and racist hatred. And most of these retarded children never witnessed one moment of the real racism of the civil rights movement. In fact it is clear they have been force fed history to cultivate the hate just like ISIS/Al Qaeda/Taliban moves into susceptible areas and twists the history for the next generation of youth with minds of mush. And with cowards at the helm just running because they see the whites of their eyes. And fools in power now who promote it, with no understanding obviously we are under attack.

Yeap, when Trump takes the helm the current DNC/Communist/Socialist party in power will have sabotaged and gutted the nation. Don't think so... They already have. Where a person because of an accusation can lose a job...then lose the house and hence the family...move into the car and then under a bridge abutment. And then be on a coroner slab. Slick little road to the death camp. Not a word to protest, not a single resistance, and not a shot fired. Unless it was the crazy police or fringe gang bangers. Hence your bloodless coup full of incarcerated folks on your campuses who spoke against the new order of revolutionaries; Coward chancellors who abandoned their posts; and lunatics in our current regime who campaign on free school to keep brain-washing the campus riots; school shootings; and liberal art quagmire that has proven to be rabid enough to eat its own.

Mr. Trump sir, if you can take this treasonous; self-righteous; and hedonistic mob and build a space program to get beyond the moon. I'll be with you and gladly deflect any opposition, because you are a hell of a man on this earth. As for the rest of you..."We either have a country or not..."

Re: Roads to making America Great Again?

To whom it my concern,

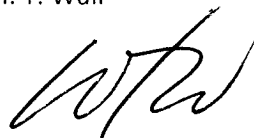

I strain to hear each and every word from the only man who bases his goals for this country... The creation of jobs. Jobs to balance the national debt; regain national dignity; rebuild national infrastructure; rebuild national security. And this man withstands so much resistance. When he will bring this country jobs! And I hear the opposition vow the veto of keystone pipelines; opposing the second amendment; and other american sovereignties. And I see the empty eyed rally goers around them. Surrounding a socialist?... and a woman whose husbands folly disgraced us. To make this country great again we need some magic ingredients....

A generation whose values were like those of the great generation... Who know what work is and how to work together for goals larger than themselves... Who can trust power structures for the leadership to win...period.

Remember we have numerous generations spawned after the killing of JFK. And hence we have an infrastructure whose goals have been domination of the american will; to rewrite our constitution; and, topple our values. Values which for a while the rest of the world looked to for guidance. To make america great again a majority need to understand what it is going to take. I wrote letters to many representatives about the Jerry Brown California Conservation Corps(C.C.C.), and not that I promote the cluster cluck that is the sanctuary city capitol of the country, and the laughing stock of many. The principles of work ethic need clarification and not from the mis-managers who surround Brown. A common goal that needs to be realized is the Space program. A gold rush for resources in our solar system needs to be also realized. JFK took command and gave us resolve to go to the moon. This is a simple next step for mankind. I say we must do this while the window of opportunity is open. The only man to speak the magic word "Jobs", must be surrounded by those who are praying for work. And when a man who claims he will give you jobs is here. All I can say is if you don't listen you will surely, as Churchill put it "Return back to the Abyss", when in fact this could have been our finest hour.

Re: This private security issue...

To whom it may concern,

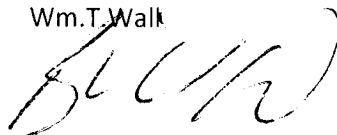

I want to point out a trace element existing that really should be of concern. I have documented numerous cases and I have reported to authorities issues that really cross the line. The investigators have not astonished me in any way nor have they regained my trust that this industry deserves any value at all. In fact the many great and honorable security personnel I have known were most of the time mis-led by mere carpet-baggers whose aims were nothing but paychecks and client desires. And not public safety; public security; or moral/ ethical endeavor. I know because I have documented issues time and time again. An attorney overview of my concerns , are resolved to have some value. To myself each and every issue is cut and dry. And points, to a national security threat unto itself.

I have time and time again happily become the lone pilgrim who goes against the norm and regards public safety; security; ethical and moral footing. To be fired in the face of such principles has given me the resolve to fight onward. For the young person in private security who faces confrontation to uphold policy, procedure, or the law. And not be backed up is absolute wrong. And this industry is becoming the standard mind-set of all other public service industries. If these industries are going to exist they must have standards..One standard should be the constitution. Something private security does not regard to strongly, and they interpret it on you and me in untrained format...

This may seem comical but I often think about Gordon Liddys private security firm and his ability to be around firearms. Sometimes there is just nothing anyone can do.Especially when power and money is involved. In my small and easily overlookable issues it is not money or power, it is mostly (self-righteous) pride. And if left un-checked will become your national security issues.As far as these investigators reviewing my documentations...some for months and months. Well, rest assured in your sequestered world. That it will not snow ball that much. Just keep re-playing, Fox news interview:" Bret Baiers 13 hours in Benghazi". All while Clintons hearings are undertaken. If you do some of the hard head liberals that surround some U.S.Representatives and "PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES", may get it. As for my case I surely do not want to steal anyones thunder; but, leaving folks behind may snow ball in the future.

Dear Representative:

Yes, I am aware that I am not from your local constituency. But, dear representative when you are in Washington and you leading this or going along with that... or God forbid filibustering whatever that is more important than jobs. Then I am a real live constituent...

From the dregs of the California Conservation Corps I have some what noted to the endless part-time; seasonal; or just low paying opportunities I as a (50ish) year old with nothing but ambition can testify too... I must question the obvious hatred and contempt the secret oligarchy in position must have for this countries citizens. Contempt for winning WW2?; or just getting lost in politics in Korea or Vietnam?; or maybe becoming the spoiled immoral children to the worlds mis-led?

When will the Doctor be out and will we have reprieve from the current social psychoanalysis of political correctness limiting word usages, that have penalties of job loss and hence death; or having to accept immoralities our religions disdain under equal penalties; Kill jobs to punish us or maybe give us thicker skin to prep us for the ISIS infiltration CNN/FOX tell us about? I just wonder what flag those rioters are really waving?. And where is our stimulus investments we were told were needed because they are "too big to fail"... I will give you a hint... I worked a security detail for the Bank of America. They had a little board meeting at the "Ritz- Carlton" in Dana point. And they pulled out all the stops... For a week they had the whole hotel. Some of those rooms are very pricey...and nice too! Is that what was meant as too big? All the while the local branches have intolerable working conditions. For the bank folks and me as well. Yes, I worked the security gig at that level also... until their sensors determined I may think for myself. Mind you that stimulus money has not given me a job, so I am not really on the take or a paycheck warrior. Many branch managers did not even know about one of the glorious board meetings. Do all of you guys live like this? P.S. Wells Fargo is in the news today...OOPS!

We have an infrastructure collapsing here in California with water mains blowing daily. And management of the C.C.C. is as misguided and corrupt as ever. At a time when young people need guidance and work needs to be done more than ever. You know after thirty years "many" in the C.C.C. would still remember me for my drive and focus. Why? Because I stood for the call then and I still do... And they hate me for it. Time to wake up ... I am at the door waiting. Please let me know someone is there. Write; Call; put a message in a bottle; ANYTHING!

Re: Sound off...To get accountability...

To whom it may concern,

As I watch the Clinton parade and the jester socialist in hot pursuit. And as I watch people get gunned down with no defense at all. But, the president of France is whisked away to safety while everyone else is wondering about. As small children are exposed to higher and higher levels of immorality. And how our colleges try to fill that ever expanding (1960s) generations vacuum of civil disobedience. I wonder what kind of spell this must be that could perform such activities.

First, a number of years ago I knew a ten year old, Shannon. And I found myself in an argument with her over the presidents allowing queers into our military. She was lethal and demonstrative to a shocking degree. I was very upset that a young mind could be influenced so much. I sought advice from many including her father. This president should be held accountable for this crime. Shannon was just one in the daycare. Maddy was another and she was only eight. I was informed she made the comment she worn rainbow shoe laces to do her part for the gay movement. This is a child of eight years, and I wish I could say I was making this up. I discovered that a Louis was in Maddys life from acquaintance of her mother. This is your liberal brain-wash first hand. And I say impeachment is to good an option. Of course, some of these children are now (19-20) years of age and able to go to our college free campuses. Connecting the dots yet?

Mean while some of your liberal/socialist/communists in power have been attacking our second amendment. And by no consequence on the heels of killers being generated to strike innocent people time and again. If just one person was in Colorado or Arizona or in any place attacked. How many could have been saved. I as a security guard could be armed and done something. But, our own military people could not? We must get this straight. We must get accountability. Stupid people in or around power must go. Those of this generation who have survived the mind bending must sound off. As an old police training I had years ago taught me...If you are surrounded and it looks hopeless say to yourself "I will survive this...I will survive this..." over and over and go forward.

Thank you,
