It's a little weird - they put me on a some of their email distribution lists, and Joe calls/emails regularly about things, but I'm not on the official invite list for this workgroup. Usually, Joe winds up asking me at the last minute to attend, though. So I've attended parts of two of these sessions, but generally just watching in the corner and scribbling some notes. I didn't know about this one, for instance, but wouldn't be surprised if I don't hear from him about it in the next week.

Hey Christian,
Have you been to one of these meetings? I had it on my calendar to attend but am not sure what to expect. If you did attend, did you participate, or just observe?
Thanks!

Subject: Upcoming Social Impact Finance Working Group Meeting

Good Afternoon,

This is a reminder that the next Social Impact Finance Working Group meeting will take place on Wednesday, October 30th at the Palmetto Club (1231 Sumter Street) in Columbia. The meeting will be from 11:30 am - 2:00 pm, with lunch provided.

If you have not done so already, please RSVP to jlongshore@instituteforchildsuccess.org by Wednesday October 23rd.

As a reminder, we plan to discuss the following during our time together:

- * Strengthening service providers to take advantage of pay for success financing
- * Other interventions (e.g. Triple P, quality pre-kindergarten, etc.) worth exploring for PFS
- * Legislative considerations for moving PFS forward in South Carolina

During the feasibility study process, we determined that more work needs to be done to strengthen early childhood service providers to focus on their outcomes, to help develop their financial, human, and social capital to take advantage of PFS financing, and improve evaluation to account for successes. Whether to prepare for PFS opportunities or not, we believe it is important to assist providers to prepare for an outcomes based world and are considering several ways to do that. We would very much appreciate your insights during this meeting.

We look forward to seeing you on October 30th.

Best,
Joe
