

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International is a professional honorary Society of women educators dedicated to promoting professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education; and

WHEREAS, South Carolina's Alpha Eta State of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International was installed on March 5, 1938; and

WHEREAS, members throughout the state are committed to making a positive impact in the Palmetto State and help secure a brighter future for children around the world, offering grant and scholarship opportunities to prospective educators and members, providing aid to teachers in states impacted by natural disasters, and supporting the Schools for Africa project which works to increase access to basic quality education for children in sub-Saharan Africa; and

WHEREAS, with the theme, "From A Shining Past To A Brilliant Future," the Alpha Eta State 75th Anniversary Convention will encourage members to honor Alpha Eta State's rich history while looking forward to continuing in the years to come.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim March 8 - 9, 2013, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize Alpha Eta State of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International for 75 years of support for women educators and their efforts to ensure excellence in education for the future leaders of our state and nation.
