Description/Significant Features:

The historic core of the frame Bungalow is three bays wide and rests on a stuccoed masonry foundation. A four bay recessed front porch embraces the building's facade and is supported by wooden posts resting on masonry columns. The building's hipped roof features exposed rafter tails. Most of the building's windows and doors are replacement, although it does retain a few original four-over-one sash. Multiple large additions have been made to the rear of the building significantly altering its footprint.

Alterations (include date(s), if known):

large frame addition to rear significantly altering footprint of house (change to U-shape footprint)
