Governor Jim Hodges

WHEREAS, radio programming has brought joy, laughter, and quality entertainment to people throughout South Carolina and the nation for decades; and

WHEREAS, throughout his career, Tom Joyner has had a significant impact on radio programming, touching the lives of countless individuals through his upbeat attitude, energy, and humorous insights; and

WHEREAS, known as “Fly Jock” and the “Hardest Working Man in Radio”, Tom Joyner offers listeners reports and comments on the latest in news and sports; and throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to honor Tom Joyner for his contributions to radio and for his outstanding commitment to minority education.

WHEREAS, through the Tom Joyner Foundation, Tom Joyner has truly upheld the highest standards of public service, working diligently to provide financial support to Historical Black Colleges and Universities to help economically disadvantaged students continue their education.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Hodges, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 5, 2001, as
